THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

"When they saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted." What a reassuring description! The first disciples knew Jesus in person, saw him after his resurrection and beheld his glorious ascension into heaven. Yet they experienced doubt. In the face of so much concrete "evidence," even these original witnesses struggled to have perfect faith in Christ. We too may have times when we find it challenging to believe. Trials and temptations may cause us to second-guess God's power. Perhaps the Gospel message, in the face of our sin, may appear too good to be true. But, like the disciples, we need not let such thoughts paralyze us. They doubted, but they worshiped too.

This is a relief. When we worship God, it doesn't have to "feel" perfect. We worship him because he deserves our adoration, our affection, or at the very least, our attention. We go to Mass and we pray as a way of giving something—however little—back to God. These acts of worship do not require that everything already be in order in our souls. On the contrary, the act of worship helps us to realign our spiritual compass. By praising and honoring God, we open ourselves to his presence, and train ourselves to recognize his action in our lives.

Jesus responds to his doubting friends by putting his faith in them. He does not reprimand them or strip them of the title "disciple." Instead, he entrusts them with an important mission, the Great Commission: he sends them out to make more disciples. But he promises to give them what they need to do it. "I am with you always," he reassures them. We are also heirs of this promise. Jesus is here with us even now...believe it or not.

FLOWER DEDICATION

The flower dedication this weekend is in honor of the 62nd Wedding Anniversary of John and Hope Sepeda.

LA ASCENSIÓN DEL SEÑOR

La buena noticia de la Ascensión del Señor es que él regresa al lugar correcto donde siempre había estado: "a la derecha del Padre". Y es desde ahí que nos prepara un lugar a cada uno de nosotros. La glorificación de Cristo es el misterio de la Ascensión, y mediante ésta nos remite a la exaltación del Hijo de Dios. En este sentido Jesús ha sido constituido Señor de los Señores, participando en el poder y la autoridad del mismo Dios. Los discípulos se quedan desorientados y abandonados viendo al cielo. ¿Ahora qué va a pasar? Pero Jesús no los abandona, sino que su eterna presencia se queda entre nosotros a través del Espíritu Santo: "Yo estaré con ustedes todos los días, hasta el fin del mundo" (Mt 28, 20).

No se vale quedarnos mirándonos sin construir cada uno de nosotros nuestra propia responsabilidad como cristianos. La sociedad de hoy tiene mucho por hacer y debe ser impulsada con las mismas palabras de los ángeles de aquel día de la ascensión: "Galileos, ¿qué hacen allí parados, mirando al cielo?" (Hch 1, 11). Los cristianos no estamos llamados a ser espectadores pasivos. Tenemos una misión que cumplir: la tarea firme de hacer discípulos para así continuar la obra de Jesús. Aunque debemos de reconocer que muchas veces nos encontramos en la situación de aquellos discípulos. También nosotros estamos en tiempo de tensión: ellos estaban entre la Ascensión y Pentecostés; nosotros estamos entre Pentecostés y la segunda venida de Jesús. ¿Cómo vivimos este tiempo de espera? ¿Mirando hacia el cielo sin hacer nada o proclamando la Palabra de Dios? El Papa Francisco nos invita a ser cristianos de esperanza viviendo el gozo del Evangelio con alegría en medio de nuestro diario vivir.
