THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

By the end of next weekend we will know the two teams that will be playing in Super Bowl XLVII. When the NFL draft took place during the last weekend of April many fans watched in eager anticipation to see whom their favorite team would select. When the draft was over, some of those same fans began an analysis of their team's picks trying to predict whether the new players would help their team develop into a winning combination. While seasoned players are often the ones who lead the way, the newest members of the team can be called on at a moment's notice to perform at the highest level of the sport. Fans and coaches alike were filled with expectations for these new recruits. And at this point in the season, near the end of the playoffs, we know whether those expectations were fulfilled or whether they were misplaced. Early in his Gospel, St. Luke describes a similar situation in reference to John the Baptist. Of course, in first-century Palestine there was no "prophet draft" to see who could make the cut as best proclaimer of the word of God. We know that there was any number of people at the time of Jesus who exercised prophetic ministry. Some even claimed to be the Messiah who would throw off the yoke of a foreign oppressor, the Romans. John never claimed that. Today's feast honors the second of three mysteries that are celebrated as the manifestation of Christ. Last week it was the Magi who bore witness. This week it is John the Baptist and the Holy Spirit descending as a dove. Next week it will be the miracle at Cana that testifies that Jesus is the Christ, the anointed One of God. Unlike some of the rookie players who were drafted last spring, we can acknowledge that Jesus has met every expectation and fulfilled all that we had hoped for.

EL BAUTISMO DEL SEÑOR

Quando les he preguntado a padres de familia que tienen varios niños "¿a cuál de sus hijos quieren más?" ellos sin titubear me responden, "Yo los amo a todos por igual". Sin embargo, si preguntamos a cada niño escucharemos lo contrario. El hijo (o hija) mayor cree que es el preferido de su madre y el menor piensa que es la niña de los ojos del padre. Y por supuesto los de en medio se sienten especiales. ¿Cómo no va a ser el más amado? Si nos fijamos en la segunda lectura de hoy, San Pedro se comporta como un hijo mayor, al darse cuenta de que Dios no hace distinción de personas. Todos en el mundo somos amados por Dios. La escena de Hechos de los Apóstoles, capítulo 10, es la culminación de las dificultades de Pedro para entender que en el favor de Dios van incluidos todos los seres humanos.

¿Dónde veo el amor de Dios en mi vida?
Qué si en la sociedad actual nos diéramos cuenta de que la generosidad de Dios va más allá de lo que nosotros experimentamos y alcanzamos a ver con nuestros ojos. El mundo, les aseguro, sería diferente. Actuaríamos responsablemente y con justicia. En el Evangelio, vemos otra revelación divina. Jesús es el Hijo Amado de Dios en quien se complace. Lucas agrega a toda la gente en la escena y de esta forma al ser bautizados nosotros quedamos limpios al nacer en Dios. ¡Vida nueva! La promesa de Dios es su constante presencia en nuestra vida por el bautismo.
