4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Studies done at the Université de Montréal in Canada in 2010 and at the Central European University in Budapest, Hungary, in 2012, show amazing correlations of voice processing and the understanding of maternal speech in infants. The Canadian study showed that newborns distinctly process their mother's voice differently from the voice of strangers. The Hungarian study provided evidence for understanding of a mother's speech in an infant even before vocabulary was being formed. Along with other investigations, researchers are uncovering information about the strong connection between mother and child, a bond that allows a child to recognize his or her mother long before the identification is made through words and concepts.

In the Gospel, Jesus says, "My sheep hear my voice" (Jn 10:27). Medieval theologians and mystics like St. Anselm of Canterbury or Julian of Norwich would speak about the generative and nurturing qualities of Christ who brought forth life in his people through the power of his resurrection and keeps them close to himself as a mother cherishes her child. As the Gospel this weekend relates, the shepherd gives the sheep eternal life and no one can take them from the shepherd's hand.

The scientific studies on infants and mothers keep coming back to the close connection that exists between those who bear children and bring them forth into the world. In this Easter season, when we celebrate the new birth given to each of us through the waters of baptism, we recognize that we have been joined to Christ in a sacramental way. The font is both tomb and womb where we die to sin and are born anew in Christ. Because he brings us forth as newborn sons and daughters of God, it only makes sense that we would "hear his voice," because he has been speaking to us from the moment we were born in him. Christ nurtures us in our life of grace and helps us mature in him.

4º DOMINGO DE PASCUA

A este domingo podríamos llamarlo sin ninguna duda "el día de la seguridad en las manos de Dios". Todos nosotros quizás hemos tenido la experiencia de alguna vez estar perdidos ya sea en algún camino o en algún vicio que nos atormenta. Casi siempre buscamos algo o a alguien que nos dé pautas para alcanzar nuestro destino. En esas circunstancias, al escuchar la voz de alguien que nos orienta, nos alegramos. Hoy es el Domingo del Buen Pastor. La imagen de Jesús abrazando a una oveja nos motiva a pensar que soy yo al que abraza y habla palabras de amor y de consuelo. ¿Qué actitudes cambian en nuestra persona al escuchar la voz de nuestro Buen Pastor?

La responsabilidad de escuchar la voz de Jesús se basa en reconocer que es Dios mismo el que nos llama. La seguridad y el conocimiento no se pueden quitar de la mano del Pastor, que es Jesús, y que nos conduce a Dios. Todos estamos llamados a escuchar su voz como fieles creyentes, y estar dispuestos a ir hacia donde Dios nos llama. Actualmente existen muchas voces que nos distraen y alejan de Dios fácilmente. Sin embargo, una vez más se nos recuerda el día de hoy cuanto se nos ama y de cómo las palabras del Salmo 100:3 deben de permanecer en nuestro corazón: "Reconozcamos que el Señor es Dios, que él fue quien nos hizo y somos suyos, que somos su pueblo y su rebaño". En esta Eucaristía, alcemos nuestras voces al Señor y démosle gracias por todas las veces que nos ha rescatado de nuestras culpas y por todas las veces que hemos escuchado su voz.
