12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Self-discovery is part of every person's life. To a greater or lesser extent, individuals learn about themselves as they go through various stages of maturing. Adolescence is an early period of self-understanding, when teenagers begin individualizing themselves, sometimes rebelling against parental values, sometimes integrating them into their own lives. College years and young adulthood are another period when men and women begin to uncover more about their own place in the world. A traumatic experience in middle age-job loss, divorce, serious illness-may also provoke a time of self-reflection, during which a person may question what the meaning of his or her own life is.

The story in Luke's Gospel this weekend (like many of the Gospel stories) can be read in several different ways. Is the human nature of Jesus seeking an understanding of who he is, uncovering the mystery of his divine nature during his time of prayer? Or is the story written by the disciples many years later in their own quest to understand who Jesus was even as he walked among them? Or is this an account of the inspirational action of the Holy Spirit, giving Peter the insight to speak accurately about who Jesus is? Or is this a teaching of Luke the Gospel writer, putting the death and resurrection of Jesus in a context that unites the day-to-day experience of a believer with the final act of Jesus? Or is it all of these, and more, at one and the same time? Biblical scholars can give us a lot on which to reflect.

As the Gospel points out, for believers, the quest of self-discovery includes an identification with Christ. As he says in the Gospel, a follower "must deny himself and take up his cross daily...whoever loses his life for my sake will save it" (Lk 9:23-24). Here is the true path to self-discovery for the Christian. It is revealed in our connection to the death and resurrection of Christ.

12º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

El Evangelio de este domingo nos recuerda lo incrustado que estamos en la cruz de Cristo por medio de nuestro bautismo. Inclusive muchos de nosotros tenemos colgado en nuestro cuello una cadenita con una cruz de oro muy bonita. La podemos tocar en nuestro pecho. ¿Pero sabemos lo que esto significa? No es un lujo traerla; es un compromiso de saber el significado de pertenecer a Cristo. Ser discípulos quiere decir que debemos estar preparados para tomar nuestro ministerio en serio. Jesús nos enseña cómo: hay que tomar la cruz de cada día y así perdiendo nuestra vida en los trabajos ordinarios es que la ganaremos para la eternidad.

¿Por qué Jesús advirtió a sus discípulos que no le dijeran a nadie que él era el Cristo? El evangelizar requiere que la audiencia se abra a la proclamación de la palabra. Antes de proclamar que Jesús era el Cristo sus discípulos debían de crear una verdadera relación con sus oyentes. Es decir, los discípulos debían de conocer a estas personas para enseñarles a compartir el mensaje. La misma regla nos aplica a nosotros para llevar a cabo nuestra misión de evangelizar. Para compartir el mensaje del Evangelio, primero se deben de establecer auténticas relaciones de comunicación. Quizá para muchos evangelizadores de púlpito es difícil esta tarea. Pero pensemos en la gran diversidad de personas y culturas que Dios ama y está dispuesto a salvar.
