16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In any household with more than one child, parents have to deal with sibling rivalry. The more benign forms find expression in simple competition, in which one child strives to do better than another in contests or sports. At other times, the rivalry shows itself in a negative light, offering up comments on who's not doing what, whether that is schoolwork or household chores. The supposedly aggrieved child has a heightened sense of justice, often proclaiming that the other child seems to get away with doing less.

It almost seems as though this is what is playing No olvidemos que en Cristo nosotros somos la revelación de Dios para otros. Nuestra meta debe saber tener balance en la vida. El personaje de Maria es el modelo a seguir y ella le invita a Martha a hacer lo mismo. out in the Gospel story today between Martha and Mary. Martha wants Jesus to be the arbiter of the dispute, much as if she would be running to Mom or Dad. Mary seems to have found the sweet spot, sitting at the Teacher's feet. Plenty of German-inspired stained glass windows show exactly that, portraying Mary with an almost beatific quality to her face, while Martha stands in the background with a rather sour grimace. Jesus sits between them as though he is the referee between the two feuding sisters.

Since the time of Augustine the story of Martha and Mary has often been interpreted as a commentary on the difference between the active and contemplative life-with the contemplative winning out. It's hard to imagine that a Gospel such as Luke's, so filled with stories of compassion and assistance, would profess that view. It is Luke's Gospel that includes the story of the good Samaritan, the classic example of active love of neighbor. Maybe a better way for us to understand the story of Martha and Mary is this: Mary's example is a reminder that we must clearly hear what Jesus is teaching. We cannot just run about acting as we always have. Rather, we need to take his teaching to heart, and in that way ensure that our actions are based on his commands.

16° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Al escuchar este Evangelio siempre tendemos a interpretarlo equivocadamente, sobretodo cuando pensamos que María, la contemplativa, es la buena y Martha, la activa, es la mala. La conducta de Martha -que también es amiga de Jesús- ignora los grandes beneficios que se alcanzan al poner a Jesús como centro de nuestra vida. Los quehaceres cotidianos la absorben y difícilmente puede sentarse a escuchar al Maestro. Es como la semilla que cae en tierra estéril. La gran diferencia es que María se sienta a los pies del Maestro a escuchar de la palabra de Dios. Ya el trabajo se hará después. ¿Cuál es tu opinión de estas dos mujeres? ¿Qué actitudes de ambas debemos de imitar?

Todo es cuestión de fe y de darnos cuenta de que Jesús ofrece a sus discípulos el saber discernir y actuar tomando la mejor parte en cada momento de nuestras vidas. Los papeles de Martha y de María son esenciales. No debemos de estar rezando cuando tenemos alguna responsabilidad que cumplir, ni debemos de trabajar cuando es el tiempo de estar con el Maestro. Tener las prioridades de Jesús es esencial; las nuestras no son importantes. A veces tenemos tanta actividad que no tenemos tiempo de entrar a alguna iglesia para visitar al Santísimo. Ojalá que la palabra de Dios no quede sofocada en nuestro activismo.
