32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Puzzles are a kind of trap that we think we can find a way out. Crossword puzzles, Sudoku, word games, Rubik's cubes all invite us to match our wits against the creator of the puzzle. Sometimes, after spending an excessive amount of time in trying to find the solution, we will walk away, only to return a few hours later to perceive the puzzle with new insight and quickly overcome whatever impasse prevented us from solving the puzzle. Weekend Edition Sunday on National Public Radio always has a "Sunday Puzzle." Numerous times the guest participants will mention how they came to the answer through a moment of insight.

In this weekend's Gospel, the Sadducees come forward with a puzzle for Jesus. It is a trap they try to lay for him, one which they themselves don't even acknowledge since they don't believe in a resurrection. They ask Jesus whose wife someone will be after the deaths of multiple husbands. It's a puzzle that begs for an answer, especially in a culture in which male relatives are responsible for the widow of a brother. Like any great puzzle solver, Jesus breaks apart their argument with his own burst of insight suggesting that they not limit their thinking to this world.

We are created beings who live in a physical world. But we also have a spiritual dimension to our existence that transcends the limitations of our physicality. So often, our perceptions of the afterlife are limited because we only know the world in which we live. All the descriptions of life in eternity are analogous because we have no direct experience of what it is. As Jesus relates in the Gospel, the heavenly realm is completely different from this world. The categories of created reality do not apply. Instead we are risen as children of God. If we try to puzzle out who we are after we die, the answer Jesus would give us is that we are alive to God.

32º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

El hablar sobre la muerte naturalmente puede que nos traiga dudas pues no sabemos qué pasa más allá de la misma. Sabemos que dejaremos de respirar, que nuestro corazón dejará de latir y que todo se acabará en el aspecto terrenal. Llegamos a pensar cómo nos gustaría ser recordados y qué clase de huella dejaremos a nuestro paso aquí, en la tierra. Para las personas en los tiempos de Jesús era muy importante dejar su huella a través de sus hijos que dejaban en el mundo. Algunos, como los saduceos, no creían en otra forma de vida más allá de la sepultura. Por esa razón exponen esta controversia a Jesús con el tema de la vida eterna. ¿Cómo les responde Jesús? Que Dios, siendo tan bueno, no abandona a su mismísimo Hijo y ni a sus otros hijos e hijas en el abismo de la muerte.

Todo el Evangelio refleja esta verdad tan hermosa y consoladora para todos nosotros. Si Dios ha creado a la humanidad, no puede ser tan cruel y abandonarla. La resurrección nos espera más allá de la muerte y lo profesamos cada domingo en el credo: "Creo en la resurrección de los muertos y en la vida del mundo futuro". Ojalá que no perdamos de vista esta verdad, a pesar de lo que escuchemos en otros medios. Jesús nos responde de la siguiente forma: "Dios no es Dios de muertos, sino de vivos, pues para él todos viven".

BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Did you pick up the BAA Newsletter last week? Did you read it? It was an invitation for our parish to join the other 89 parishes of the diocese to work together to meet the needs of our Church. Today, please take home an Appeal Mailer/brochure which has a return pledge card and envelope. You may fill out your card and place it in the self-addressed envelope and put it in the offering basket. No gift is too small!

HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY

You may bring a photo of your deceased loved ones to place in front of the altar. All Souls envelopes are available. They will be placed on the altar for prayer during the month. Part of the joy of belonging to the Church is the privilege of helping the Holy Souls to enter heaven. Almsgiving, indulgences and works of penance are recommended.

S.H.A.R.E.S.

We have received a check in the amount of $249.63, our quarterly share of qualifying purchases made during the months of July, August, and September, 2013. Thank you for shopping at SaveMart, Lucky, S-Mart Foods, and Food Maxx.

¿Cómo el creer en la resurrección te hace mensajero de esperanza en el presente? ¿Cómo contemplarás de aquí en adelante al Dios de los vivos por el cual todos viven?
