33RD SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

We are nearing the end of the Atlantic hurricane season. There are many people in this country who pay little heed to this designation, which typically runs from June 1 to November 30 each year. On the other hand, there are large segments of the populace for whom hurricane season is a time to follow the weather broadcasts more closely. For those who live in the affected areas of the country, being prepared for a hurricane's arrival is part of life. Long-range preparation includes things like having an evacuation plan, knowing where important documents are, and having some emergency cash. When a storm is close at hand, vigilance heightens as people board up windows, stockpile supplies, and stay tuned to weather forecasts. Local and state governments execute their disaster preparedness plans to ensure the safety of citizens.

In the Gospel this weekend, Jesus encounters some people who were enamored of all the beauty of the Temple. For them, this was a sign of a certain permanence and blessing rendered by God. In Luke's Gospel, written after the Jerusalem Temple had been destroyed, the Gospel writer has Jesus describing the city's doom and the Temple's destruction. Just like the citizens of hurricane areas who pay close attention to weather reports when there is an approaching storm, the people in the Gospel ask Jesus for the sign that what he describes will happen.

Like folks who live in a hurricane zone, we need to be prepared. Our long-range preparation includes having an evacuation plan. The evacuation plan isn't about gathering up belongings and pulling out before the storm hits. The evacuation plan for a Christian is being prepared to leave this life when the time comes. That means that during our life on earth we have stayed close to God by being faithful to him and trying to live the kind of life Christ has taught us by loving our neighbor. Are you ready to go?

33ER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO
Estamos por terminar el año litúrgico y las lecturas escatológicas nos ayudan a reflexionar sobre nuestra vida de fe y oración a nivel personal y comunitario. El fin del año refleja de cierta manera el fin del tiempo: es como si el Señor nos llamara a rendir cuentas sobre nuestra vida personal y comunitaria. Sin embargo, al mismo tiempo éste es un momento propicio para comenzar algo nuevo. Reflexionemos en la lectura del Evangelio que maneja dos aspectos importantes. El primero tiene que ver con la destrucción de la ciudad de Jerusalén, la cual coincide con la caída del templo que sucedió en el año 70 D.C. El segundo aspecto se relaciona con el final de los tiempos y, por ende, el juicio final para cada uno de nosotros, donde se examinará el comportamiento del cristiano dentro del amor y fidelidad al Evangelio. ¿Cómo nos sentimos ante esta realidad?

San Juan de la Cruz tiene una frase muy conocida que versa así: "A la tarde de la vida seremos juzgados en el amor". Esta frase puede que nos ayude a ver con claridad que no debemos preocuparnos tanto por las destrucciones anunciadas apocalípticamente. Más bien debemos de considerar cómo llevamos a cabo la justicia y la caridad de las cuales tanto nos ha hablado Jesús en los recientes Evangelios dominicales. La viuda que clama por justicia, el republicano que oraba
