putting GOD first

8TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing?” “The anti-anxiety message Jesus gives us today is not just ancient pop psychology. The point of this passage isn’t to give us a “strategy” for coping with our fears. Jesus is proposing something much more profound. He is teaching us how to eliminate our fears altogether. To put it simply, he tells us to get our priorities straight. This whole reflection on worrying culminates in the instruction to “seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness.” That’s where our freedom lies. When we concern ourselves with being in right relationship with God, our other concerns melt away.

Deep down, we know that this life isn’t about bodily health or comfort. Those things don’t last anyway. But freedom from fretting is more than simply thinking about how it’ll all work out eventually-in heaven. No. Jesus offers us more. He insists that our heavenly Father will provide for us, here and now. We only need to take him at his word. That means sticking to our part of the bargain by putting God first.

What does this look like, this seeking God and not worrying about the rest? It looks like Mother Teresa giving up every material possession, living amongst the poor without any dependable income, and watching truckloads of food appear at her doorstep unannounced. It looks like a check showing up in the mailbox of two struggling parents to cover the medical bills for their sick baby. It looks like the couple that tithes to its parish month after month, and still finds it has plenty to cover its expenses. In a word, it looks like trust. Trust in the divine providence of a Father who loves his children.

8º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Si alguien tiene derecho a opinar sobre el tema de tener confianza en Dios son las personas que han sufrido la pérdida de sus pertenencias y en algunos casos hasta la vida a causa de desastres naturales y violencia. Su respuesta es siempre la misma: “Todo se pierde, pero la esperanza en Dios nunca”. El Señor Jesús nos invita hoy a ver a las aves del cielo que encuentran comida gratis y a mirar la belleza de las flores que no hacen nada para tener tanta hermosura. Claro que para las personas que no tienen trabajo y que cuentan hasta el último centavo para ajustar la renta, comprar la comida y conseguir los útiles escolares de sus hijos, esta idea es controversial. ¿Podemos confiar en Dios? ¡Aunque tengamos dudas y suframos hasta enfermedades, Dios nunca nos abandona!

En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús llama dos veces a Dios Padre y nos asegura que si con tanta delicadeza cuida de los pájaros y de la flores, con mayor razón cuidará de nosotros porque sabe de antemano todo lo que necesitamos. Jesús nos da caminos seguros para ser buenos creyentes, no como las “pistas” no tan convenientes que la sociedad de hoy nos interpone en el camino. Sin embargo, él nos invita a confiar en Dios más que en la preocupación excesiva por el dinero y otras cosas materiales. ¿Creemos que se puede lograr? ¡Claro que sí!, si seguimos el consejo de no servir a dos amos (notemos que en este caso “servir” significa “pertener”). Jesús nos enseña que la riqueza no debe ser nuestra obsesión, pues existen otras cosas más importantes. ¡El amor de Dios no se compra!

Si se esforzaran por adquirirla, conocerian quien es realmente Jesucristo; el hijo de Dios venido al mundo para libranos del pecado y de la muerte eterna.
