4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

“So he went and washed, and came back able to see.” The man born blind was healed by the power of Christ. But the man played his part as well. First, he let Jesus spread the clay on his eyes, which was probably just as strange as it sounds. This wasn't a typical practice for curing blindness! In fact, there was no such practice; as the blind man said, “It is unheard of that anyone ever opened the eyes of a person born blind.” Yet the man trusted Jesus enough to submit to this odd therapy. Then, still caked in mud, the man followed Christ's direction to wash in the Pool of Siloam. Only after this washing was the healing complete.

If the man had doubted Jesus, if he had been too skeptical to participate in this unusual ritual, he would not have been cured. But he believed. He took Jesus at his word and obeyed his command. Ironically, this man without physical vision “saw” what those around him did not. He recognized that Jesus was a prophet. The Pharisees, on the other hand, were “blinded” by Jesus' boldness in curing the man on a Sabbath day. They thought they were looking at a sinner.

Jesus tells us he came, “so that those who do not see might see.” Where do we fall on this spectrum of spiritual vision? Are we like the man who followed Christ without question? Like him, do we respond to Jesus with obedience, even when it doesn't “appear” to make sense at the time? Or do we struggle to see Christ in the trials of life? During this season of Lent may we identify any areas where doubt has created a blind spot in our hearts. Let us pray that our eyes may be opened to recognize, even amidst struggles, the One who is “the light of the world.”

Jesús nos recrea dándonos algo de él mismo

como el hombre del Evangelio, quien a pesar de tanta controversia logró ver a Jesús. Mediante el bautismo somos nosotros lavados, naciendo así a una vida nueva. O sea, somos transformados de pecadores a hijos e hijas de la luz. Tal cual el hombre del Evangelio, al ver con ojos nuevos somos enviados a proclamar la buena nueva. Y a través del encuentro con Jesús, afirmamos que creemos en él.

El punto clave del Evangelio de hoy versa en lo siguiente: al hacer Jesús lodo con su propia saliva y untarlo en los ojos del ciego, Jesús recrea al ciego dándole algo de él mismo. Si nos fijamos bien, en las lecturas de este día hay tres unciones. Primero, el profeta Samuel consagra a David, pasando de pastor a rey. Después Jesús unge al hombre que de no ver pasa a creyente fiel. Y en el salmo Dios perfuma nuestra cabeza. En las tres unciones existe un nuevo sentido de identidad para cada persona. Entonces bien, ¿de qué forma respondemos a nuestra unción de bautizados? ¿Cómo somos nuevos en nuestra fe y fidelidad a Jesús? Ojalá que en lo que nos queda de la Cuaresma caminemos dentro de la luz de Dios, ya que su luz nos da la fuerza y protección para la jornada.

4º DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

“Mientras esté en el mundo, yo soy la luz del mundo”.
 Dicho esto, escupió en el suelo, hizo lodo con la saliva, se lo puso en los ojos al ciego...” Para vivir el misterio pascual debemos de entender la importancia de sabernos ciegos tal
