THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

"Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him."

With these words, Jesus distinguished himself from other spiritual leaders. He was doing more than offering advice. He was offering himself: "The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." Through the Eucharist, Jesus provided a way for his followers to be intimately connected with him, not just with his ideas. When we receive this sacrament, we are able to be close to the Lord not only in our hearts, but in our bodies as well. In other words, we are able to unite our entire being-body and soul-to Christ.

Unlike other prophets, Jesus did not just describe a "path" to follow. He told people that he was "the way" (Jn 14:6). He made very bold claims about reaching spiritual fulfillment, and one of them involved receiving him in the Eucharist: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever." We thus have a choice to make. Will we eat this living bread? Will we really allow Jesus to become part of us? If we answer yes then we partake of true Communion—we enter into a profound union with the Lord. But if we choose not to eat this bread from heaven (or if we eat it without faith or reverence) then we miss out on Christ's invitation to unity with him. Instead we would be like those in the crowd who "quarreled among themselves, saying, 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?'" They thought Jesus couldn't have been serious about this. But he was. He insisted, "My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink." Today on the solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, may God grant us the faith to recognize the true presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

EL CUERPO Y LA SANGRE DE CRISTO

Los seres humanos nos acostumbramos con facilidad a las cosas que nos anuncian los medios de comunicación. Pronto corremos a consumir las cremas que quitan las arrugas, el tinte nuevo para el color del cabello y píldoras maravillosas que nos darán unos añitos más de vida, aunque de sobra sabemos que ni la crema nos quitara las arrugas, ni el tinte quitara las canas y mucho menos la píldora nos devolverá la juventud. Entonces, ¿por qué lo hacemos? ¿Qué nos motiva a creer en esto? ¿Por qué nos dejamos engañar?

Les digo esto porque hoy viene Cristo, que nunca nos engaña, a anunciarnos con todo su amor que "Mi carne es verdadera comida y mi sangre es verdadera bebida... El que come de este pan vivirá para siempre". Es decir, Jesús nos mantiene en perfecta forma en esta vida y en la otra lo gozaremos eternamente. ¡Y aún así no le hacemos caso! Asistimos a Misa muchas veces por costumbre y sin ganas de cambiar nuestra forma de vida. Su Palabra nos entra por un oído y sale por el otro. Peor aún, en Misa ni comemos su pan ni bebemos su sangre, cuando la Eucaristía debería ser para los cristianos el medio más importante de participación en la familia y la sociedad de lo divino. Es decir, la Eucaristía es la acción plena del Resucitado entre nosotros. Participemos pues en nuestra celebración eucarística en esta hermosa fiesta del Cuerpo y la Sangre del Señor, sabiendo de antemano que su gracia que desea comunicarnos es dada por medio de este sacramento. De esta forma tendremos fuerza para perdonar a los que nos ofenden y resistir a las tentaciones a las que estamos expuestos en nuestra vida cotidiana.
