SPiritual INSIGHT
 THAT COMES THROUGH
FAITH

SAINTS
PETER AND PAUL,
APOSTLES

“But who do you say that I am?”
 What if Jesus asked this question today? How would people respond? Some might focus on his role in history, saying, “You are the founder of the Christian religion.” Others might describe his work: “You are a teacher, a healer, a spiritual guide.” Perhaps there are some who would identify him by his character, suggesting that he is a loving, generous, compassionate, and forgiving role model. But surely some would answer in the same spirit as Peter in today’s reading, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

This is a profound statement of faith. To call Jesus “the Christ” is to profess that he is the Messiah, the long-awaited savior of God’s people. To call him the Son of God is to profess that he is not only a miracle-working man, he is also divine. Among the disciples being questioned, Peter was the one who responded with this real insight into Jesus’ identity. “Flesh and blood has not revealed this to you,” Jesus replied to Peter, “but my heavenly Father.” In other words, recognizing Jesus as our savior and our God isn’t something we figure out on our own. It’s a spiritual insight that comes through faith.

Jesus did many amazing things while he walked the earth. He gave us a powerful example of love and forgiveness and he offered us teachings that help direct our lives. But we are called to see even more than these historical facts; as Christians we are called to recognize him as the Christ. Through faith, we know who Jesus really is: our God and our Savior. Thus, we are called to give him more than our respect and admiration as a remarkable man. We are called to give him our full allegiance and to worship him as the one true God.

¿Qué podemos aprender de San Pedro y San Pablo?

SAN PEDRO Y SAN PABLO, APÓSTOLES

La solemnidad de San Pedro y San Pablo, Apóstoles, es muy importante en la Iglesia entera. A lo largo de los siglos ellos han personificado la tradición de la enseñanza de la Iglesia, sin interrupción alguna. En su tiempo predicaron incansablemente el Evangelio de Jesucristo. Ambos sufrieron el martirio, San Pedro crucificado y San Pablo degollado con espada. Ellos son nuestros grandes maestros de la fe. Sus escritos en la sagrada Escritura son un gran tesoro de enseñanza y testimonio para las primeras comunidades cristianas y para la Iglesia actual. Son también símbolo del colegio apostólico, como piedras fundamentales de la fe. A lo largo de los siglos el papa en turno invoca la autoridad de estos santos apóstoles en sus actos oficiales, para referir así la tradición a su primera fuente, que es la Palabra de Dios. Pero, ¿qué nos enseñan estos grandes maestros de la fe a nosotros? ¿Qué podemos aprender de ellos? ¿Qué cualidades podemos imitar de sus vidas?

Ambos se consagraron totalmente al anuncio de la buena nueva de Cristo. Cada uno según sus cualidades fue testigo fiel de lo que predicaba. La muerte para San Pablo es la hora de la verdad. Para él la muerte es la revelación de la esencia de nuestra fe: ver a Jesucristo en su gloria y recibir la corona que nunca se marchita. San Pedro afirma su fe en el Mesías. A la pregunta de Jesús, “Y ustedes, ¿quién dicen que soy yo?” Pedro, decidido, rápidamente contesta: “Tú eres el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios vivo”. ¡Bravo, Pedro! Ésta es una gran respuesta, revelada por Dios Padre. Ahora viene para nosotros el gran compromiso. ¿Quién es Jesús para mí?
