16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

us a glimpse into heaven. The saints who reside there radiate a brightness, a warmth that resembles the sun itself. Gathered around the throne of God, they share in the luminous presence of the King of Kings, the true Son of the Father.

Perhaps there really is something spiritual about the nearly universal craving to enjoy a tropical vacation, the trend to escape to warmer climates for the winter, or the move towards permanent residence in sunny climates. The continual presence of sunshine, the enjoyable experience of one warm day after another may be in fact like a little taste of heaven. In the Gospel, Jesus himself describes eternal bliss using the imagery of sunshine.

But heat has its downside too. When it's too intense, it can actually be deadly. Think forest fire. Think desert. Think "the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth." These are not images of the four-star vacations that we want to last for eternity. No. Here Jesus is referring to the hellish habitat of "all who cause others to sin and all evildoers." That's not a trip we want to take. As uncomfortable as it may be, we need to examine ourselves to be sure we're not on board a train that's going in the wrong direction. We need to identify and acknowledge any patterns of sin that may have crept into our lives, and seek God's forgiveness. That will get us back on the right track, enabling us to be counted among "the children of the kingdom."

Let's aim for a journey to that kingdom, the one true trip to paradise that lasts for all eternity.

HUMANITARIAN CRISIS

Memo from Bishop Armando X. Ochoa: It is important that we understand the difference between the political agendas and challenges associated with migration. Bishop has asked that a copy of the statement of "Transportation of Displaced Migrant Children and Families to California" be included in the bulletin. A copy in English and Spanish is inserted. Our Diocese has established a designated account to receive funds. Donors may make checks payable to the Diocese of Fresno-Emergency Relief for Displaced Children and Minors.

"COME AND SEE"

The Diocese of Fresno invites you to participate in a Retreat for men, ages 17-45, who are discerning a call to the priesthood. 16º - DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Tres son las parábolas de Jesús que encontramos en la liturgia de este domingo. La del trigo y la cizaña, la del grano de mostaza y la de la levadura. Las tres sugieren que el Reino de Dios da fruto y crece siempre. Además nos da tiempo para crecer en la paciencia, la energía y el deseo de participar activamente en el Reino. El crecimiento requiere de proceso y ritmo. Notemos que los procesos personales y comunitarios tienen su ritmo y tiempo de crecimiento. También se nos dice que el Reino crece en todas partes, incluso en el mismo lugar donde el maligno siembra la maldad. Esto quiere decir que vivimos en una sociedad que conlleva el bien y el mal juntos. Por lo tanto, cabe que nos preguntemos: ¿sabemos distinguir el bien y el mal que la sociedad nos ofrece? ¿Qué métodos usamos para sembrar la semilla del bien? Es importante, pues, no dejarnos arrastrar por la corriente.

Las tres parábolas subrayan lo importante que es el permanecer comprometidos a continuar en el seguimiento de Jesucristo; a no dejar de hacer el bien aunque sea dentro de circunstancias adversas donde aparentemente la injusticia triunfa. No olvidemos que el bien siempre triunfa sobre el mal, y la generosidad sobre el egoísmo. Ayudémonos, valorando y apoyando a las personas que luchan por hacer el bien. Pidamos al Señor en esta liturgia que nos dé la virtud de la paciencia para madurar y crecer como personas, agradecer y alabar la paciencia que Dios nos tiene y así pues aprender a ser pacientes con nuestros semejantes. ¡Todos necesitamos la sabiduría del tiempo! "El que tenga oídos, que oiga".
