19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"During the fourth watch of the night, he came toward them walking on the sea." The disciples weren't prepared to see Jesus walking on water. They had already witnessed plenty of miracles at the hands of their teacher; only hours earlier he had been curing the sick, and had multiplied five loaves of bread and two fish into enough food to feed thousands. But this miracle was different. This one wasn't to heal anyone or provide for anyone. This miracle seemed more like a manifestation: a clear revelation of Jesus' divine power. But the disciples were slow to get the message. First, they thought they saw a ghost. Then, Peter tried to step out in faith, but he fell when the wind picked up. It wasn't until the storm ended and the disciples were safe that they made their profession of faith, "Truly, you are the Son of God."

Healings, miracles, and manifestations of divinity weren't quite enough to make these men believe. The disciples' faith seems to have been dependent upon the personal experience of being saved. To this point, the mighty signs and works of Christ had been done on behalf of others. They were wondrous to behold, but apparently not enough to elicit a full declaration of faith in Jesus. But when these frightened men had their fears relieved, then they were ready to believe.

This is what Jesus wants to do for every one of us. He became man to save us. He died on the cross to take away our fears, to forgive our sins, and to give us eternal life. These aren't just stories about someone else's life. This is the story of our life. Like Peter, Jesus says to us, "Come." May we respond with confidence, putting our trust in the One who has the power to calm the storms in our lives too.

19º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

La escena de este Evangelio viene después de la que escuchamos el domingo pasado. Los pobres y los enfermos se reúnen en torno a Jesús. Escuchan, comen, son sanados y regresan a su respectiva misión, tal como nosotros ahora lo hacemos al asistir a la Eucaristía dominical: nos reunimos alrededor de la mesa, escuchamos su Palabra, nos alimentamos con su Cuerpo y Sangre y después salimos enviados a compartir la buena nueva con los demás. ¡Dar a conocer a Jesús es nuestra misión! Mateo nos ayuda a contemplar la humanidad y divinidad de Jesús. De igual manera, responde a las preguntas que la comunidad se hace de Jesús: ¿acaso no es éste el hijo del carpintero? Sí, sí lo es. Pero tiene también todas las características que según el Antiguo Testamento solo Dios posee.

Casi todos pensamos que los problemas son malos y por lo tanto gastamos parte de nuestra vida tratando de resolverlos. En las lecturas de hoy tenemos a tres personajes cercanos a Dios que tuvieron serios problemas. El profeta Elías tiene dificultades con la reina Jezabel por cambiar el culto de Baal. Pero Dios no abandona a Elías en esta dificultad. San Pablo siente una gran tristeza porque los judíos no han reconocido a Jesús como el Mesías. Su corazón sufre porque ama a su pueblo. San Pedro tiene miedo ante la tempestad y pide a Jesús que le dé la mano al sentir que se hunde cuando camina sobre las aguas. Los tres tienen serios problemas. Pero si analizamos bien estas circunstancias, notamos que todos ellos, y mediante sus problemas, contribuyeron a mejorar su relación con Dios. A ellos y a nosotros Jesús nos dice: "Tranquilícense y no teman. Soy yo". ¿Cómo es mi relación con Dios?
