21ST SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

“You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church.” The name Peter is significant. It comes from a word that means “rock.” When Jesus gives this new name to Simon, he is identifying this chosen apostle as a foundation upon which his church will stand. This verse, along with the constant practice of church tradition ever since that moment, explains the office of the papacy. The pope, even to this day, is a direct successor of Saint Peter. An unbroken historical line traces right back to Christ himself, when he gave “the keys to the kingdom of heaven” to Peter.

In establishing Peter as the first pope, Jesus was putting a structure in place that has proved to be a brilliant one. Because it is built on a firm foundation, the Catholic Church has been able to persevere for millennia through schisms, wars, scandals, and the persistent presence of sin in its all-too-human members. The church has maintained consistency and unity in her teaching thanks to the headship of the pope. It really is remarkable that an institution so old can still be so vital in this day and age. Thus far, the prophetic utterance of Christ remains true, “the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.”

Jesus must have been thinking of us, of all future Christians, when he established the papacy. Just as Jesus instructed Peter after the Resurrection to “Feed my lambs...feed my sheep,” (Jn 21:15, 17), so too our Holy Father continues the mission to care for us like a good shepherd. We may be thousands of miles from him, but his prayers and his leadership serve our local Catholic community nonetheless. The pope’s care for us will always be a reminder of the loving concern of Christ for his church.

21ER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

En nuestro tiempo existen una gran variedad de opiniones sobre Jesús. Algunas no han sido bien reflexionadas. Otras sí. Pero lo que debería de contar no es lo que muchos dicen de Jesús, sino cómo respondemos personalmente ante la pregunta de Jesús: “¿Quién dice la gente que es el Hijo de hombre?” “Ahí está el detalle”, como decía Cantinflas. Lo que nos debe de preocupar es el cómo buscar una intimidad personal con Jesús y no andar presumiendo todo lo que “sabemos” de Jesús. Solamente así podremos decir que estamos en camino al discipulado, identidad y cumplimiento de la misión a la que hemos sido llamados. ¿Estás de acuerdo conmigo? Trabajemos pues en la relación personal con Jesús por medio de la oración y la alabanza.

Debido a su respuesta, Jesús llamo a Simón “dichoso”. La fe en Cristo da felicidad. ¡Qué oportuna fue la pregunta de Jesús a sus discípulos! Pero esta fue para todos, no solo para Pedro. Sin embargo, fue a Pedro a quien Dios reveló la respuesta. Pedro pronto contesto: “Tú eres el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios vivo”. Después de la respuesta viene el cambio de nombre a “Pedro”, seguido de la responsabilidad de la misión de guía y autoridad en la comunidad de sus discípulos, en su Iglesia: “Yo te daré las llaves del Reino de los cielos”. Señor, ayúdanos en esta Eucaristía a renovar nuestra respuesta de fe y ser fieles a tu Iglesia. ¡San Pedro nos da el ejemplo! ¿Estamos dispuestos a ser discípulos con intención?
