29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.” Jesus had a brilliant way of navigating tricky situations. In today’s Gospel, the Pharisees “plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech.” But he outwitted them, as usual. They wanted to catch him being a political rebel; they expected him to suggest that paying taxes to Caesar was unnecessary or even unjust. But instead, he shifted the focus. He emphasized the importance of fulfilling our civic responsibilities but also the necessity of giving to God what we owe him.

So, how do we know what we should “repay” to God? Well, Jesus’ response to the Pharisees gives us our answer. He looked at the Roman coin that bore the image of Caesar on it. Then he concluded that the coin belonged to Caesar because it was made in his likeness. Now, what bears the image of God? What is made in his likeness? We are! “God created man in his image; in the divine image he created him; male and female he created them” (Gn 1:27). If the coin belonged to Caesar, we belong to God. We repay God by giving him ourselves!

This self-giving is what the Second Vatican Council called “the obedience of faith.” Through this spiritual obedience, we freely commit ourselves to God, “offering the full submission of intellect and will to God” (Dei Verbum #5). Jesus is calling us today to use our will to choose to follow God. Indeed, the one thing we can give God in return for the gift of life is our will. He gave us the freedom to love him or not. And while the choice is always ours, today Jesus encourages us to make the right decision by giving God what is really his: ourselves!

2º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

“Dios sigue actuando en la historia. El Espíritu Santo sigue moviendo los corazones de los cristianos como en la primera comunidad cristiana de Tesalónica; la comunidad era ejemplar por su fe, su caridad y esperanza. Si seguimos su ejemplo seremos capaces en la actualidad de lograr un equilibrio entre Dios y el César. Entre Dios y los impuestos que cada año debemos pagar al gobierno. Por un decir, la invitación de Dios ante todo esto es que la política no es lo importante sino que dentro de ella se respete al ser humano y su dignidad.

Balance entre el ser humano y lo divino es lo que Jesús en el Evangelio nos enseña. Los fariseos no perdían el tiempo en poner a prueba a Jesús, y comprometerlo con sus respuestas. Unidos con unos partidarios de Herodes, inician la conversación buscando como acusarlo y deshacerse de él lo antes posible. Sus palabras de alabanza al inicio de las preguntas se convierten en trampa y ponen a prueba la honradez de Jesús. “Maestro, sabemos que eres sincero y enseñas con verdad el camino de Dios, y que nada te arredra, porque no buscas el favor de nadie. Dinos, pues, qué piensas”. La pregunta: “¿Es lícito o no pagar el tributo al César?” Jesús es acertado en su respuesta, dando una salida brillante. ¡Denuncia su hipocresía! La ambición de los dirigentes, su amor al dinero, facilita el dominio de los romanos sobre los pobres de Israel, por lo tanto, esto impide que den un verdadero culto a Dios, alejándose de la honestidad y solidaridad con los que más sufren. ¿Crees que sucede esto ahora? ¿Dónde lo identificas? ¿Qué es lo que hay que devolver a Dios?
