Dear Father,

We gather together to give thanks and praise
For who You are and all You have done for us
For our friends and family both near and far,
For Your mercy, grace, and forgiveness,
And most of all for the gift of Salvation through
Your Son Jesus Christ.

Help us to be truly thankful for the many blessings in our lives,
Remind us to be humble in our abundance,
And guide us to live a life that is pleasing to You.
In Jesus' Name, Amen

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me." Jesus insists that in ministering to others' physical needs, we are truly serving him. "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me," he tells us. And in a similar way, what we fail to do for them, we fail to do for Christ: "What you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me." This means that we have been given both a gift and a task. The gift is the chance to encounter Christ in our brothers and sisters. The task is to be sure we don't neglect the encounter.

The corporal works of mercy provide us with a kind of guide for how to live out this important mission from Christ. These works include feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, clothing the naked, sheltering the homeless, visiting the sick and the imprisoned, and burying the dead. Based on the words of Jesus in today's Gospel, it's an important part of the Christian life to look for ways to engage in these kinds of bodily ministries. Traditionally, these "corporal" works are complemented by a set of "spiritual" works. The spiritual works of mercy ensure that we don't minister to the body at the expense of the soul. They include admonishing the sinner, instructing the ignorant, counseling the doubtful, comforting the sorrowful, bearing wrongs patiently, forgiving all injuries, and praying for the living and the dead. By engaging in these diverse works of mercy, we serve others, love Jesus, and hope to "inherit the kingdom prepared for [us] from the foundation of the world."

NUESTRO SEÑOR JESUCRISTO, REY DEL UNIVERSO

¡Que viva mi Cristo, que viva mi Rey! Es el grito unánime que escucharemos en nuestras parroquias este domingo. Con esta solemnidad terminamos el año litúrgico del Ciclo A. El próximo domingo iniciamos con el Adviento el nuevo año litúrgico del Ciclo B. Hemos caminado de la mano del Evangelista Mateo y hoy como culmen de ese ciclo se nos presenta a Cristo, Señor del tiempo y de la historia. Todos caminamos hacia esa meta del encuentro del Señor. La Eucaristía de este domingo debe ser muy festiva, motivándonos, y nos esmeramos en el arreglo de flores, música adornos, cantos, vestiduras litúrgicas, el incienso y la alegría de nuestros corazones.

Esta fiesta fue instituida por el Papa Pío XI en 1925, ante la descristianización que sufría Europa después de la Primera Guerra Mundial. Y ahora, ¿como vemos a Jesús en nuestra sociedad? ¿En qué forma estamos descristianizados? El Papa Francisco en su homilía del 24 de marzo de 2013 nos ayuda a reflexionar sobre Jesús para nuestro tiempo. "¿Qué tipo de rey es Jesús? Mirémoslo: montado en un pollino, no tiene una corte que lo sigue, no está rodeado por un ejército, símbolo de fuerza. Quien lo acoge es gente humilde, sencilla, que tiene el sentido de ver en Jesús algo más". ¿Cuál es la relación entre mi simplicidad y la habilidad de aceptar a Jesús? ¿Qué es lo que Jesús me pide que deje a un lado para recibirlo a él? ¿Dónde está mi humildad que me lleve a parecerme a Jesús? La fiesta de hoy nos sorprende. Nuestro Rey es humilde; pidámosle que nos enseñe a servir a los demás como él, en toda su realeza, nos sirve y da consuelo.
