2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“What are you looking for?”

When Jesus asked the two disciples this question, they didn't give an answer. Instead, they asked another question: “Where are you staying?” Obviously these men were interested in learning more about Jesus. They wanted to accompany him and be in his presence. They decided to spend the whole day with him. But they were not quite ready to reveal what they were really looking for.

Remember that at the time, these men were disciples of John the Baptist. They had heard John announce the coming of the Christ, but they didn't know yet who he was. John's followers were certainly looking for something: the Messiah. Most likely, these men were interested in seeing for themselves whether or not this Jesus was the one they had been waiting for.

Apparently, he was. Andrew was convinced by that daylong encounter with Jesus. In the verse that follows today's Gospel, we learn that “He first found his own brother Simon and told him, ‘We have found the Messiah’” (Jn 1:41). What a joy this must have been for Andrew! He found what he was looking for. Indeed, the joy was so great that he couldn't wait to share the good news.

When we, like Andrew, take time to “spend the day” with Jesus, getting to know who he really is through our daily prayer, then the happiness we experience will naturally overflow to others. The process may begin with questions about who Jesus is; that's only natural. But once we find what we are looking for, we can do what Andrew did by sharing the joy of the discovery with our own brothers, sisters, neighbors, and friends right here at home.

2º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

 DIOS nos llama a todos y en todos los tiempos

El domingo pasado celebramos el bautismo del Señor. En el Evangelio de hoy Juan indica a sus discípulos quien era Jesús: “Este es el Cordero de Dios”. Bastó eso para que los discípulos lo siguieran y pasaran el día con Jesús. Llamada o vocación, como deseas llamarle, pero lo cierto es que Dios nos llama a todos y en todos los tiempos. Así lo experimentó Samuel mil años antes de Cristo, así como los primeros discípulos después del bautismo de Jesús. Si leemos la Biblia con atención, nos daremos cuenta de que Dios ha llamado a personas de todas las edades y condiciones. Es decir, llama a pobres y ricos por igual. El dilema es la respuesta. Unas personas responden rápidamente y otras necesitan más tiempo. ¿Tú cómo respondes?

La vocación tiene cuatro puntos clave. El primero es el llamado. El segundo es el encuentro. “[Jesús] se volvió hacia ellos, y viendo que lo seguían, les preguntó: ‘¿Qué buscan?’” La vocación tiene una estructura de relación personal entre Dios y cada uno. Así ha sido en todos los tiempos. Jesús facilita el encuentro. “¿Dónde vives, Rabí?” “Vengan a ver”. El tercer momento es el seguimiento. Es decir, debe haber un proceso vocacional -o seguimiento libre-donde exista una responsabilidad de relación permanente con él. El cuarto punto es la misión. Dios nos llama, y si existe una respuesta inmediatamente, confía la misión. “Deja tu país, a tu parentela y la casa de tu padre” (Gn 12, 1). Jesús nos llama hoy a ser sus discípulos. ¿Cómo respondemos? Puede existir el llamado a ser esposos fieles, consagrarse al sacerdocio o vida religiosa, o vivir como laicos comprometidos. Por último, ¿cómo respondemos al llamado de la fe?
