PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION

"They began to be distressed and to say to him, one by one, Surely it is not I?" During this dramatic scene at the Last Supper, we can picture Judas Iscariot, the betrayer, trying to play up his innocence as long as possible. He knew he had already betrayed Jesus, and if he joined in the "who, me?" ritual, he was just putting on appearances. But what about the others? The rest of the Twelve were deeply disturbed by the idea that they might betray Jesus. As we know, however, when push came to shove, Peter's fear of betraying Jesus was trumped by fear for his own life. "I do not know this man about whom you are talking," he said in order to protect himself. But notice Peter's reaction when he realized what he'd done: "He broke down and wept."

How different was humble Peter's response from that of prideful Judas, who acted as if he hadn't done anything wrong: "Who, me?" Both men were unfaithful to the Lord, but only Peter immediately felt real sorrow, what we traditionally call contrition, for his sin.

The betrayers in today's Gospel readings are not just these two men. We also follow the crowd who hailed Jesus one day with "hosannas!" and a week later nailed him with their angry "crucify him!" How quickly our faith can turn fickle. For some of us, it may be easy to condemn the crowd and Judas and Peter, thinking that we would never do such a thing: "Who, me?" But today, let us resolve not to be so proud as to think we are perfect disciples. Let us have the humility of Peter who wept over his imperfections and, ultimately, repented of his sins. Only when we acknowledge that we need God's help will we be able to hail him and praise him as he truly deserves.

DOMINGO DE RAMOS DE LA PASIÓN DEL SEÑOR

Llegamos a la Semana Santa. O Semana Mayor, como muchos le llamamos a este tiempo del año litúrgico tan especial, ya que es el culmen de nuestra vida de fe. En este domingo, como durante el Triduo Pascual, la liturgia nos invita a vivir rituales diferentes de lo que habitualmente hacemos durante el año. Por lo tanto, es necesario prestar atención especial para que no se nos haga rutina. Conviene que revisemos con cuidado esmerado las lecturas, símbolos y especialmente la liturgia del Triduo Pascual. Los catecúmenos deben de estar preparados para que, con entusiasmo, participen de la celebración desde la bendición de los ramos hasta la Vigilia Pascual.

Con nuestros cantos de júbilo del hosanna, que literalmente significa "sálvanos", y el Kyrios, cuyo significado es "Señor", damos inicio a la entrada triunfante del Señor a Jerusalén. Él entra humildemente montado en un burrito, según nos dice la Escritura, pues llega buscando la paz. Imagínate tú mismo entre la gente de ese día, agitando las palmas y lleno de gozo por haber visto al Mesías. ¿Cuáles son sus esperanzas del Mesías al llegar a Jerusalén? ¿Qué haremos esta Semana Santa para acompañar al Señor? Dios viene a nosotros humildemente, sin forzarnos, enseñándonos que su amor es sin medida. La victoria triunfante de Jesús en la cruz es muestra de humildad, no de poder. Sin duda alguna, el Reino que Jesús nos ofrece por medio de la cruz es distinto al que nosotros muchas veces deseamos. Al acompañar a Jesús en este Domingo de Ramos palparemos algo nuevo: Dios y su Reino se nos han acercado.
