We are empowered by God's power to be dynamic, refreshing, and life giving

PENTECOST SUNDAY

“Rivers of living water will flow from within him who believes in me.” He said this in reference to the Spirit.” Rivers of living water. What does this image make us think of? Something active. Something dynamic and changing, yet constant and dependable. A river with living water is not stagnant; it is not silent, but rather it speaks. This river is not mucky or full of algae. This river is clear, beautiful, refreshing, and life-giving. It draws people to its banks by providing the kind of water that sustains life and the kind of scenery that is a joy to behold.

Those who believe in Jesus will be like this river. Through the Spirit of Christ, which first came upon Christian believers at Pentecost and which came upon us at our baptism, we become a source of “living water.” Instead of being motionless, dull, murky, unproductive people, we are strengthened by God’s power to be dynamic, refreshing, and life-giving.

This isn’t automatic, however. We must cooperate with the Spirit that has been given to us. Those of us who have received confirmation have been sacramentally gifted with the fullness of the Spirit, but that doesn’t mean that the living water is flowing at full speed. As St. Paul wrote in his second letter to Timothy, we need to “stir into flame the gift of God” (1:6). The flame may be there, but if we don’t fan it through prayer, virtuous living, spiritual formation, and frequent reception of the sacraments, then it will never burst forth with the full power that it could have. But let us take heart! Even this process of “fanning” is made easier when we call upon the Holy Spirit to help us. For St. Paul reminds us today that “the Spirit too comes to the aid of our weakness.”

Envía, Señor, tu Espíritu a renovar la tierra!

Envía, Señor, tu Espíritu a renovar la tierra. ¡Sí, Señor, a esta tierra tuya que tanto lo necesita!
 En este Pentecostés, el Evangelio nos narra la forma de cómo Jesús aparece en medio de sus discípulos y como sopló sobre ellos y les dijo: “Reciban al Espíritu Santo. A los que les perdonen los pecados, les quedarán perdonados; y a los que no se los perdonen, les quedarán sin perdonar”. San Juan nos relata cómo los discípulos reconocieron al Señor. Este les regala dos mensajes importantes que les da la fuerza necesaria para remover sus miedos a través de su paz. Los mensajes para ellos, y para nosotros en la actualidad, son los siguientes: reconocimiento y misión. Para Jesús era importante que sus discípulos lo reconocieran y vieran con sus propios ojos; era importante que reconocieran que el Crucificado estaba vivo. Fue así que quedaron todos llenos del Espíritu Santo y listos para iniciar la tarea de trabajar por el Reino.
 San Pablo nos invita a reflexionar y llegar a la siguiente conclusión en nuestra vida: si vivimos según el Espíritu, obremos también según el Espíritu. Obrar según el Espíritu no es solamente cuestión de una sola vez, sino de proponernos, día tal día, a orientar nuestra vida hacia la paz. Recordemos que si el Espíritu Santo habita en nuestros corazones, tendremos la fuerza de amar, perdonar y, sobre todo, reconocer cómo el Señor nos envía a proclamar las maravillas de Dios. ¿Tenemos el don del amor y la presencia viva del Espíritu Santo en nosotros? ¿Estamos dispuestos a ser misioneros de esperanza y paz? Si es así, unámonos pues a la Iglesia entera que este día canta y alaba la presencia del que endereza nuestros caminos. ¡Ven, Dios Espíritu Santo!
