12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?” Incredible. Unbelievable. Miraculous. What a sight to behold. If only we had been there with those disciples! What a help it would be to our wavering faith to see Jesus calm the waves. Could we ever doubt again that he was Lord of all creation after a moment like that?

Well ... maybe. These remarkable moments do have a way of losing their luster from a distance. In retrospect, we too often second-guess such episodes of spiritual clarity: “Perhaps it was just a coincidence. Maybe the storm was about to end anyway. How can we know for sure?” In fact, it appears as though the disciples themselves were already struggling with forgetting the power of the signs they had previously seen. This is why Jesus reprimands them because of their fear, “Do you not yet have faith?”

Why does Jesus expect them to have faith already? Because, as Mark’s Gospel records for us, Jesus had already cured countless people, cast out demons for all to see, and even had a divine voice announce at his baptism, “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased,” (1:11). The miracles were not in short supply. The problem was believing in the miracles even after they were over.

Let’s not fall prey to the same problem, thirsting for other miracles than the ones we have already experienced in our own lives, subtle though they may have been. Let’s not make our faith dependent upon the appearance of the next sign from God. No. Let us join the psalmist in maintaining an attitude of belief, as we thank the Lord for “his wondrous deeds to the children of men.”

12º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Jesús nos invita hoy a pasar a la otra orilla del lago. Pero para eso debemos de subir a la barca junto con él y los otros discípulos. ¿En cuál orilla estamos nosotros ahora? Cada uno sabe su orilla. Puede ser el egoísmo, la infidelidad, la mentira y muchas cosas más. Estamos bien instalados en comodidades que muchas veces es imposible movernos, son tantas las pertenencias que nos impiden ir libremente. Jesús sabe esto, por eso la invitación de “vamos a la otra orilla”. Él nos quiere libres para disfrutar la travesía. ¿Estamos dispuestos a ello?

¡Hay otra orilla! Jesús lo afirma, todo su Evangelio nos lo muestra. El proyecto del Reino, un mundo mejor más justo más humano. La manera de vivir al estilo de Jesús es la otra orilla. Solo falta atreverse a ser mejor, a ser nuevo, a transformar lo viejo de nuestras costumbres en nuevos horizontes, donde quepa el amor entre cada miembro de la familia, de la comunidad y de la sociedad. No más violencia, muerte y destrucción. Durante la travesía habrá fuertes vientos de inseguridad, tempestades de falta de fe, choques a la barca llenos de miedo. Sin embargo a pesar de todo esto, existe una orilla mejor. Jesús conoce todas las dificultades de la jornada, y espera que confiemos, que le digamos con fe, “¿No te importa que nos hundamos?” Cuando todo parece perdido, cuando el desaliento nos aqueja, es el momento de ir a él para que calme la tempestad. ¡Tengamos fe, confiemos en Dios! Dios nuestro Padre sigue con nosotros.
