13TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

“And they ridiculed him.” So he hung his head in shame and slunk gloomily out the back door? So he pleaded and whined and called them all names? No. Instead, Jesus “put them all out” and went about his business, raising Jairus’ daughter from the dead.

Jesus wasn’t concerned about what others thought. And lest we imagine that everyone around him was constantly worshiping him and adoring his divinity, today’s reading reminds us that even in the presence of the Lord, skeptics were a dime a dozen. So should we be surprised if we must deal with a bit of ridicule ourselves?

As faithful Christians, we will at times be called to chart a course that doesn’t make sense in the eyes of the world. And, yes, some people will say we’re crazy. We may be called to take a stand for the unborn or the elderly in a culture that considers life to be expendable. We may be faced with a decision at work that requires us to adhere to an ethical code that our boss thinks is laughable. Perhaps we will have to sacrifice a relationship because of pressures to ignore Christian morality. Or maybe the situation could be as simple as dealing with the smirks that arise when we say a prayer before eating at a restaurant.

Whether we face a snicker or blatant discrimination against our religious freedom, we should not flinch or waver when such opposition comes our way. Jesus faced it and so will we. The question is only how we will respond.

Today, Jesus gives us an example of calm confidence as he marches forward with his mission. He knew that he was doing the right thing, and that was enough for him. It should be enough for us too.

13ER DOMINGO
DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Dios es un Dios de vida y no de muerte, es la enseñanza del Evangelio de hoy. Ante la muerte todos en su momento nos preguntamos: ¿Dónde está Dios? ¿Por qué ha muerto este niño, este joven, esta buena persona? La respuesta para los que tienen fe es siempre Cristo venció a la muerte y salió victorioso de ella. Hoy debemos ver el mensaje positivo de la enfermedad y la muerte aunque nos cueste trabajo comprenderlo. Jesús cura a la mujer cuando ella toca su manto. Tiende la mano a la niña y la devuelve a la vida. Actualmente, lo sigue haciendo con nosotros, sanándonos de enfermedades físicas y espirituales. Estamos incorporados a Cristo en su dolor y en su victoria. ¿Cuáles son tus enfermedades? ¿Qué deseas que te sane Jesús hoy?

El Evangelio también nos compromete a dar pasos concretos; por ejemplo, revisar nuestras actitudes hacia los ancianos de la familia o el enfermo olvidado en casa o en el hospital. Tender la mano y dejarnos tocar por ellos es lo que devolverá la vida y la alegría a la familia y la sociedad tan herida y lastimada por la enfermedad y la muerte. Dios ama la vida y quiere que vivamos como seres vivos, tanto aquí en la tierra como plenamente, en su corazón, en la eternidad. Para eso nos ha creado. La carta de San Pablo nos ayuda a reflexionar en lo siguiente. “Vivir es compartir”. ¿Cómo compartes la salud que tienes con otros? Recordemos que tener caridad no es lo mismo que dar limosna. Caridad es darte a los demás sin espera recompensa alguna.
