14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“He was amazed at their lack of faith.” The citizens in Jesus’ hometown just couldn’t bring themselves to believe in him. Even though they “were astonished” when they beheld his wisdom and learned about his mighty deeds, nonetheless, “they took offense at him.” What right did one of their local boys have to run around claiming he was a prophet? Prophets come from other places. Prophets are sent by God. The son of the village carpenter would never fit that bill.

So in spite of clear evidence to the contrary, the established modes of thinking and the built-in prejudices of the townspeople led them to conclude that Jesus was not who he said he was. Because of this stubborn hardness of heart, Jesus’ “own kin” missed out on the gifts that perfect strangers were receiving: “He was not able to perform any mighty deed there.”

How often are we like these small-minded villagers? How often do we stay trapped in the regular routine of our daily existence and fail to have the faith to believe that God is right here in our own hearts and our own homes? As Christians, we may know about the wisdom and power of God, but we too often hesitate to acknowledge that this same power can be at work here in our very midst. Just as in Nazareth, our failure to believe can prevent God from working the mighty deeds he would otherwise perform in our lives. If we don’t give him the freedom of our faith, if we don’t call upon his Spirit to move us and lead us, then we are closing ourselves off from the real miracle right in front of us. Instead, let us open our hearts and our minds to recognize the presence of God, not just in other places, but right here, right now.

14° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Estoy segura que todos hemos tenido alguna vez la experiencia de querer ayudar en la familia y no poder hacer nada. ¿Qué va a saber ése o ésa de lo que yo estoy pasando? ¿No tengo confianza en lo que me propone? ¿No puede ayudarse a sí mismo y me quiere ayudar a mí! En fin, un sinnúmero de comentarios que desaniman y la persona prefiere alejarse.

El Evangelio de hoy nos dice que Jesús no pudo hacer ahí ningún milagro. Ahí, ¿dónde? En su tierra con los suyos. Fue cuestionado con varias preguntas. ¿Dónde aprendió tantas cosas? ¿De dónde le viene la sabiduría? ¿De dónde viene el poder de hacer milagros? ¿Qué no es éste el carpintero, el hijo de María? ¿No viven aquí, entre nosotros, sus hermanas? Definitivamente, el dicho de “nadie es profeta en su tierra” se clarifica hoy. Sin embargo su respuesta de amor fue curar algunos enfermos imponiéndoles las manos. La incredulidad en el tiempo de Jesús, como ahora, es el fuerte rechazo a las obras de Dios. Hay gente que vive como si Dios no existiera. La necesidad de evangelizar es urgente. Es esencial tener como centro de la vida familiar, social y comunitaria a Jesucristo. Cuando Dios es el centro de nuestras acciones y proyectos, todo cambia, la experiencia de tener a Dios cerca te hace sentir sostenido por su gracia. Tomar en cuenta al carpintero al Hijo de María, en las personas sencillas que nos rodean es un reto. Por eso no nos vaya suceder que a la mera hora. Pero si Dios nos desconozca ¡entonces, sí, que apuro!
