16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.” Jesus felt pity ... and so he taught? Yes. Jesus gave his teachings out of love and concern. He gave them because he knew that they were what his followers needed. He did not teach in order to control, manipulate, brainwash, or coerce us. He did not teach in order to show his wisdom or prove his superiority. Jesus gave us his teachings as a way of guiding us, protecting us, and walking alongside us—like a good shepherd. It’s important for us to welcome the teachings of Christ and his body, the church, in this spirit. Too often, people misconstrue church teaching as something restrictive or controlling instead of understanding that Jesus handed down these teachings to us in order to help us find happiness and fulfillment. When we live according to church teaching, we are doing more than just being “good.” We are also staying close to the shepherd of whom today’s psalm speaks: “In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.” These benefits are ours when we follow the voice of the One who loves us.

Sometimes, we may not like what the voice is saying. Sometimes we may be drawn towards a different path or think that the grass is greener elsewhere. But by humbly acknowledging that the Shepherd-and his church-have great wisdom and a unique perspective to share, we will be led in the right direction. Though it may feel like a sacrifice at first, ultimately this loyalty to the flock will enable us to enjoy the contentment of those who declare, “The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.”

Vengan conmigo a un lugar solitario

16º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Entre tanto compromiso de los párrocos, predomina el cultivar en sus fieles las tres virtudes teologales: fe, esperanza y caridad. Si ponemos atención nos daremos cuenta de que la oración colecta nos lo recuerda: “Llenos de fe, esperanza y caridad”. Para poder cumplir los mandamientos del Señor, debemos de practicar estas virtudes. Podemos ver el “Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica” para una mayor comprensión: Fortalecer la fe (§1814). Alentar la esperanza, poniendo nuestra confianza en Cristo (§1817). Y Darle fuerza al amor (§1822).

El Evangelio de Marcos nos ayuda a poner una actitud diferente con respecto al trabajo. Los apóstoles habían sido enviados a una misión y regresaron llenos de aventuras y cosas buenas que habían vivido. Por esta razón Jesús les dice: “Vengan conmigo a un lugar solitario, para que descansen un poco” (6, 31). Jesús quiere enseñar que la salud corporal y espiritual es importante. No quiere de sus discípulos hombres y mujeres compulsivos. Nos quiere sanos de mente y de cuerpo para lograr un ministerio productivo y que lleve a la persona a vivir las virtudes teologales dentro de su familia y comunidad. Se necesita comer, descansar, ir al médico y vacacionar. El descanso contemplativo y la actividad es lo que da el equilibrio. Pero, eso sí, acompañados del Buen Pastor. A los esposos, a los líderes parroquiales y en general a toda persona que se afana trabajando. Recuerde que, para seguir tirando de la carreta, debemos de aceptar la invitación de Cristo: “Vengan conmigo a un lugar solitario”. Al estar a su lado aprenderemos muchas más cosas. ¡Inténtalo!

CUIDANDO NUESTRA CASA COMÚN

Acompañenos el miercoles, 22 de julio de las 6pm-8pm para escuchar a Monseñor Raymond Dreiling y otros delegados después de que regresen de escuchar al Papa Francisco y participar en el Encuentro Mundial de Movimientos Populares en Bolivia. Ellos nos compararán un mensaje urgente del Papa, quien nos llama a cuidar de toda la creación y poner nuestra fe en acción para proteger a los que la sociedad considera descartados. La reunión será en el salón parroquial de San Antonio Maria Claret.
