18TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

“So they said to him, ‘What can we do to accomplish the works of God?’ Jesus answered and said to them, ‘This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent.’” These fledgling believers came to Jesus seeking direction. They had witnessed his miracles, heard his teachings, and been miraculously fed by his hands. Now they wanted to know what they should do. How should they respond to the revelations they were beholding?

Most of us would expect an “active” answer to a question like theirs. We tend to think of God’s work as things like the corporal works of mercy-feeding the hungry and sheltering the homeless-or the spiritual works of mercy-instructing the ignorant, comforting the afflicted, and so on. But Jesus gives a surprising answer. Instead of focusing on these external tasks, he tells the crowd that God’s work is to believe in him. They should accept the gift God gave: the Son. This, apparently, is the appropriate starting point for doing God’s work.

And really, it makes sense. If we move too quickly into doing external actions, we risk not having enough interior strength behind them. Feeding the hungry is always good, but feeding the hungry as an expression of our love for Jesus is going to enable us to feed them with more compassion, more generosity, and more long-term commitment.

When faith in Jesus is foremost in our lives, then the other important tasks that are all part of God’s work will fall into place. If we love Jesus, we will naturally want to love his people. So let us examine the good works that we do and be sure that they have as their starting point a deep and abiding faith in the Son of God.

18° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

El domingo pasado escuchábamos en el Evangelio cómo Jesús dio de comer a la multitud con tan sólo los pocos panes y pescados que tenían. Veíamos también la admiración de las personas por el milagro de haber comido hasta saciarse. La gente comió muy bien, por esa razón seguían a Jesús. En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús, explica así: “Yo soy el pan de la vida. El que viene a mí no tendrá hambre y el que cree en mí nunca tendrá sed” (Jn 6, 35). Jesús, deseaba que sus seguidores pasaran del plano material al espiritual. Ya que existe el riesgo de quedarnos ahí solo en admirar el milagro. Tal como pasó a muchos en su tiempo. Las personas sabían que volverían a tener hambre, por eso lo buscaban -comer gratis no le hace mal a nadie-y Jesús les dice: “Ustedes no me andan buscando por haber visto señales milagrosas, sino por haber comido de aquellos panes hasta saciarse” (Jn 6, 26).

¿Por qué buscas tú a Jesús? ¿Qué es lo que él sacia en ti? Para que puedas tener una respuesta más explícita veamos lo que el documento del Vaticano II, “Lumen Gentium” (§48). Explica: “Porque Cristo, levantado sobre la tierra, atrajo hacia sí a todos (cf. Jn 12, 32)”. Cuando se entra por el camino de la fe, se sacia nuestra hambre y sed. Es decir, el creer en Cristo Jesús como pan de vida es un fuerte llamado al encuentro personal con este misterio. Esto es un verdadero reto para nuestra vida tan ajetreada que llevamos, le damos muy poco tiempo a estar con Dios.

PRAYER FOR THE WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES PHILADELPHIA 2015

*God and Father of us all,
in Jesus, your Son and our Savior,
you have made us
your sons and daughters
in the family of the Church.
May your grace and love
help our families
in every part of the world
be united to one another in fidelity to the Gospel.*

*May the example of the Holy Family,
with the aid of your Holy Spirit,
guide all families,
especially those most troubled,
to be homes of communion and prayer
and to always seek your truth
and live in your love.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen*

WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES

Our Holy Father, Francis will be attending the 8th World Meeting of Families in Philadelphia, September 22-27, 2015. The World Meeting of Families was created in 1994 by St. John Paul II with the goal of strengthening the sacred bonds of family across the globe. In Pope Francis’ “Letter to the Families,” he reminds us that “Jesus is the one who brings together and unites generations. He is the inexhaustible font of that love which overcomes every occasion of self-absorption, solitude, and sadness.”
