beautiful in the sight of GOD

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile.” In the days of Jesus, this issue was about performing empty external rituals of cleanliness instead of purifying the heart. For most of us, the issue is probably a bit different. Our fixation on externals is not so much with religious prescriptions and practices; instead, our daily obsession tends to be with appearances in general. In our media-saturated culture, we are extremely tuned in to how things look. We are trained to respond to current fashion trends in clothing, hair, makeup, and accessories. Even bodies, cars, houses, and landscaping all fall into the realm of highly marketed images. The risk for us is to be so concerned with having the right “look” on the outside that we fail to consider what’s happening on the inside.

Life is about more than what we have or what we parade around for others to see. As human beings we are a unity of body and soul, and if we neglect our souls, then we are neglecting the fulfillment of our human nature. We need to make sure we are not like the Pharisees in today’s reading who were too concerned with outside appearances. Jesus tells us in response to them that “from within people, from their hearts, come evil thoughts, unchastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, malice, deceit, licentiousness, envy, blasphemy, arrogance, folly. All these evils come from within and they defile.” This list makes a good starting point for some personal meditation on our interior life. Let’s ask ourselves, “Which of the behaviors on this list threaten to defile my soul?” Then, let’s ask the Holy Spirit to help purify us of that spiritual ugliness so we can appear beautiful in the sight of God.

¡Pureza de intención, pureza en la acción!

22º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Por varios domingos estuvimos reflexionando sobre el Evangelio de Juan. Desde la multiplicación de los panes hasta el discurso del Pan de Vida. Hoy regresamos a Marcos y su Evangelio nos instruye a dar honor a Dios con el corazón y con nuestros labios. Jesús nos da un mensaje claro, vivir nuestra fe con integridad. Saber vivir honestamente es una virtud, sólo practicándola día a día podremos llevar una moral que muestre la verdadera pureza. ¡Pureza de intención, pureza en la acción! Se atribuye a San Francisco de Asís la siguiente frase: “Predica el Evangelio siempre, cuando sea necesario usa palabras”. Con esto nos quería decir que, no hace falta tanta palabrería —basta el ejemplo moral—.

¿Soy honesto en mis decisiones? ¿Las reglas que tengo en casa con la familia son justas? Jesús, invitaba a sus seguidores a escuchar y entender con un corazón abierto sus enseñanzas. “Nada que entra de fuera puede manchar al hombre; lo que sí lo mancha es lo que sale de dentro”. Cuando nos enojamos, gritamos y criticamos a otras personas, aparte de la falta de sentido moral, nos estamos destruyendo nosotros mismos. Todo lo malo y lo bueno sale de lo profundo del corazón. Para vencer la crisis que vive el mundo actual de falta de moral y de Dios, necesitamos un compromiso comunitario que transforme la vida de todos. Jesús dice que la separación de Dios no viene por no observar la ley —de lo que comemos o dejamos de comer— sino por el mal que existe dentro de nuestros corazones.
