SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

On this solemnity of All Saints, let us turn to the saints' reflections upon Christ's beatitudes. Blessed are...
 ... the poor in spirit: "Not even God can put anything in a heart that is already full" — Blessed Teresa of Calcutta.
 ... they who mourn: "They who weep for their own sins are blessed" — St. Thomas Aquinas.
 ... the meek: "There is nothing as strong as true meekness; there is nothing as gentle as true strength" — St. Francis de Sales.
 ... they who hunger and thirst for righteousness: "First of all, we must be just towards God. Let this fact be firmly impressed in our hearts, so that it shows in our behavior, for it is the touchstone of the true 'hunger and thirst for justice'" — St. Josemaría Escrivá.
 ... the merciful: "If a soul does not exercise mercy in one way or another, it will not obtain [Christ's] mercy on the Day of Judgment" — St. Faustina Kowalska.
 ... the clean of heart: "The pure soul is a beautiful rose, and the Three Divine Persons descend from Heaven to inhale its fragrance" — St. John Vianney.
 ... the peacemakers: "Peace is not just the absence of war ... Like a cathedral, peace must be constructed patiently and with unshakable faith" — St. John Paul II.
 ... they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness: "This is the teaching of Jesus Christ in the Gospel. How, then, can it be said, that those believe in the Gospel who say: 'Blessed are those who have money; blessed are those who suffer nothing ... pitiable is the man that suffers persecution and ill-treatment from others'? ... Either they do not believe the Gospel, or ... they believe only a part of it" — St. Alphonsus Liguori.

TODOS LOS SANTOS

La fiesta de hoy está hecha a la medida de cada persona. Al reflexionar en ella, nos damos cuenta de que no se celebra a ningún santo o santa en particular, sino que la Iglesia celebra la memoria de una muchedumbre que nadie podría humanamente contar. Tal como lo menciona la primera lectura de este domingo, "Vi luego una muchedumbre tan grande, que nadie podía contarla. Eran individuos de todas las naciones y razas, de todos los pueblos y lenguas" (Ap 7, 9). Ésta es la fiesta de los cristianos de ayer y de hoy, de cercanos y lejanos, y de nuestros familiares y amigos que han servido fielmente al Señor con el espíritu de las bienaventuranzas cada día de su existencia. Ellos vivieron cada día de su vida con sencillez, humildad y perseverancia. Ellos ahora gozan de la visión de Dios. Los recordamos en la oración, y sintiendo que desde el más allá, junto con Dios, nos bendicen y cuidan.

¿Crees tú que las personas que ya pasaron a mejor vida son santas? ¿Por qué lo crees? ¿Piensas que solamente muriendo podemos llegar a la santidad? ¿Crees que tú santidad comienza desde aquí en la tierra? Dios actúa en nosotros si lo dejamos entrar en nuestros corazones. Es importante darle espacio para que trabaje en aquello que nos estorba para vivir sus bienaventuranzas. El día de hoy Jesús nos revela, mediante su palabra, la vida verdadera por medio de las bienaventuranzas. Éstas revelan todo lo limpio, puro y bueno que hay en nosotros. Éstas son también el despertar de lo que hacemos contrario a las enseñanzas de Jesús. Pidamos con fe a los santos y santas de la familia y amigos para que sigan inspirando nuestras vidas.
