32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury.” Just two small coins, worth only a few cents—this was the greatest contribution of the day? Jesus explains that this widow’s tiny sum was generous in a way that the larger amounts people gave were not. Others made noticeable, “impressive” donations to the Temple treasury, which in fact cost them nothing. These were simply “from their surplus wealth.” But the poor widow “contributed all she had, her whole livelihood.” She was truly generous, giving what cost her dearly. Her contribution was made out of love, not just out of obligation or for the sake of show.

God has given us all different “livelihoods.” Some of us have more money, more talents, more resources. Some of us have less. But of course we know that God’s love for us is not based on this external data. He loves the rich and the poor alike. The question is whether this external data affects our love for God. Sometimes, those who are poor are more aware of God’s providence and protection. Sometimes, they are bitter. As for those who are rich, it can be tempting to feel so comfortable and complacent that they don’t recognize their need for God or his action in their lives. But Jesus’ message challenges us all today to gratefully give back to God in thanks for whatever he has given us, be it small or great. We are called not to give from our surplus but to share from our very livelihood. That is to say, we are called to acknowledge that our livelihood itself, no matter the details, is a gift from God. Let us follow the wisdom of the widow who showed gratitude for what she had and was truly generous in spite of what she lacked.

32º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

El Evangelio de hoy brinda un homenaje a los pobres. Son ellos los que dan todo sin esperar nada a cambio cuando se necesita, pues su confianza en la providencia de Dios es única y verdadera. La viuda de hoy es el ejemplo, ya que es la única que da más allá de lo que le sobra. La donación, pues, debe ser generosa. Ahora bien, el reto para nosotros es no echar en la canasta dominical nada más de lo que nos sobra, pues esto es un engaño. Si somos cortos en dar a Dios en la donación dominical, es posible que hagamos lo mismo en otras cosas, tales como ayudar a quien lo necesita, visitar al enfermo o encarcelado, compartir lo que se tiene con los más pobres y, más importante aún, amar sin condiciones a la familia.

¿Cómo es tu donación dominical? ¿Das lo que te sobra, o planeas tu compromiso con tu parroquia? La bondad y la generosidad no son un símbolo, sino una realidad en y de cada persona. Lo que hacemos lo debemos hacer con convicción, tal como las viudas de la primera lectura y del Evangelio: “Ella se fue, hizo lo que el profeta le había dicho y comieron él, ella y el niño” (1 Re 17, 15). “Yo les aseguro que esa pobre viuda ha echado en la alcancía más que todos” (Mc 12, 43). Lo que está en el corazón, sale a flote: estas dos mujeres dan ejemplo de lo que se haya en su interior. La invitación para esta semana es dar ejemplo de generosidad con los que nos rodean. ¿Lo haremos? Pidamos al Señor que así sea.

SPAGHETTI & CHICKEN DINNER

Don’t miss the Spaghetti and Chicken Dinner! It is this Sunday, November 8th from 2:00 pm to 6:00 pm at the CPDES Hall. Take-outs are available. Tickets are $10 and may be purchased at the door.

HOLIDAY FOOD DRIVE

Please bring non-perishable items to the church for the Thanksgiving and Christmas food baskets. Do you know a family in need? Please let Hortensia know, call her at 559-355-5665. Leave a message for a return call. If each of us brings one can of food each Sunday, this will certainly help.

A PRAYER FOR FAMILIES

All-Loving God, we thank you for all of your good gifts, especially the gift of family. For parents and grandparents who nurture our faith and lift us up in difficult times, we thank you God. For brothers and sisters who laugh and listen and celebrate with us in joyful times, we thank you God. For the gift of eternal life and the promise that we will one day join all of the beloved who have gone before us, we thank you God.

BISHOP’S ANNUAL APPEAL

The 2015-2016 Together in Faith/Bishop’s Annual Appeal mailer/brochures including a return pledge card and envelope are available on the entry table. You may fill out your card and place in the self-addressed envelope or put it in the collection basket. No gift is too small. Visit website: www.dioceseoffresno.org/baa for further information or donate on-line.
