OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

“Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.” Once they wear the crown, earthly kings don’t have to win the allegiance of their subjects; if you live in the kingdom, you’re part of the kingdom and are under the authority of the king. But things are different with Jesus.

As the Lord told Pilate, “my kingdom does not belong to this world.” His subjects are not given by default. His kingdom is not established in a particular place or even in a particular time. Rather, the realm of the King of the universe encompasses all the other kingdoms of the world. And everyone, regardless of any earthly allegiance, is invited to be the privileged subject of this King. The key to entering this kingdom, as Jesus says, is to listen to his voice. Heeding the voice—the teachings, the guidance, the commandments—of Jesus enables us to belong to this kingdom that is founded upon truth.

Jesus defines his authority in these terms: “For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth.” As Christians, we profess to follow the King of kings. Therefore, as members of his royal realm, we too should be about the business of testifying to the truth. Of course there are many ways to defend the truth in our modern age. Upholding the dignity of life and protecting religious liberty are two examples of the pressing issues of our day. But even more fundamental is the basic claim we make: that Jesus is in fact God-made-man and that, through his death and resurrection, he has saved us from our sins.

This Gospel message, both simple and profound, is a truth that never grows old. Let us boldly profess the truth of the Gospel as we invite all those we encounter to join in the joy of the kingdom of Jesus.

NUESTRO SEÑOR JESUCRISTO, REY DEL UNIVERSO

Hoy finaliza el año litúrgico con la fiesta de Cristo Rey. Durante todo el año hemos celebrado los misterios de Cristo por los cuales todos hemos recibido la salvación. Hoy en todo el mundo católico se escuchará el canto de “Viva Cristo Rey”. Éste es el Rey que es un signo de contradicción para muchos. Recordemos que su nacimiento fue anunciado por los ángeles de la siguiente manera: “Hoy les ha nacido, en la ciudad de David, un salvador” (Lc 2, 11). Después el Evangelio nos lo muestra así: “Este es mi Hijo muy amado, en quien tengo mis complacencias” (Mt 3, 17). Y luego en Mateo: “Ha salvado a otros y no puede salvarse a sí mismo. Si es el rey de Israel, que baje de la cruz y creemos en él” (Mt 27, 42). Jesús provocó toda su vida confrontaciones entre su pueblo. Siempre rechazó privilegios y condecoraciones. Hoy, por fin, le da respuesta a Pilato: “Tú lo has dicho. Soy rey” (Jn 18, 37).

¿Por qué crees tú que Jesús se declara rey? ¿Cuál crees que es la verdad sobre el amor de Dios y sobre la nueva vida que Jesús nos propone? Durante el año vivimos con Jesús y sus enseñanzas. Lo acompañamos hacia su camino a Jerusalén y hoy nos muestra su verdadera realeza en la cruz. Ser y vivir en la verdad implica este compromiso de tomar la cruz junto con Jesús. Las lecturas de Daniel y del Apocalipsis nos indican claramente que Jesús es rey en otra dimensión: su soberanía jamás será destruida; tiene dominio en la tierra y en el cielo. Señor, ¡ayúdanos a reconocer tu realeza!
