BAPTISM OF THE LORD

"After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened." What a treat to be in that crowd! Just imagine the experience of witnessing this manifestation of divinity! To SEE the Holy Spirit "in bodily form like a dove" and to hear the voice that "came from heaven" announcing Jesus' true identity. Don't we all long for this kind of miraculous clarity? Wouldn't it do wonders for our faith if we had such unmistakable certainty about who Jesus really is?

It's easy to imagine that the first Christians had it easier than we do. They got to be with Jesus in person, and to witness the miracles that went along with his years on earth. Because of this, we can quickly forget the benefits we enjoy that they did not. We live on the other side of the Resurrection, for example. The first followers of Christ believed in him BEFORE he rose from the dead. We, on the other hand, have the confidence of knowing that this man literally conquered death. We also have two millennia of Christian witness through the saints to pull upon. The first Christians had no idea what this new religion would produce, how many people would embrace it, or how it would change the world for the better. We know that Christianity has been fruitful beyond measure.

Today's Gospel informs us that it was only after they were baptized that the people witnessed the opening of heaven. Even Jesus himself was baptized before he heard this earthly confirmation of his heavenly origin. We who have been baptized, following the example of Christ, also have "access" to the voice of God. In the silence of our hearts, and through God's word in the Bible (another advantage we enjoy), heaven is "opened" for us as well.

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

The ultimate goal of the Year of Mercy is to help us change our hearts and our lives. There is a tremendous need for mercy in our world today. Pope Francis wants our parishes to become "islands of mercy in a sea of indifference." He wants us to bring "consolation to the poor...liberty to those bound by new forms of slavery in our modern society," spiritual sight to those who have lost touch with God, and human dignity to those from whom it has been taken. During the Year of Mercy, visit a pilgrimage site to obtain indulgences: St. John's Cathedral, Fresno; Our Lady of Mercy, Merced; St. Joachim, Madera; St. Anthony of Padua, Reedley; Immaculate Heart of Mary, Hanford; St. Aloysius, Tulare; Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Bakersfield; St. Therese, Shafter; St. Ann, Ridgecrest.

¿Se hemos dado cuenta de que somos hijos de Dios?

La fiesta del Bautismo del Señor es la última del tiempo navideño. En ella se expresa, como en la Epifanía, que Jesús, ese Niño, envuelto en pañales y recostado en un pesebre es la manifestación de Dios mismo entre nosotros. Durante la Navidad vivimos un tiempo extraordinario; parece que el mundo se detenga y aprenda a hacer el bien. La alegría es desbordante, las personas se encuentran, se reconcilian, se dan regalos. El ambiente en la liturgia es de gozo, de ternura y sencillez. El evangelista Lucas, presentando la predicación del Bautista, nos enfoca en una doble observación. El pueblo estaba en expectación. De hecho la gente creía que Juan era el Mesías. Pero Juan aclara y encamina hacia el verdadero Mesías con su propio testimonio.

Hoy es un domingo que nos llena de nostalgia invitándonos al equilibrio entre la Navidad que termina y que tiene un sentido extraordinario y la entrada al ciclo ordinario; en la liturgia empezaremos a seguir al Señor en la normalidad de la vida cotidiana. Pero antes de eso vale la pena detenernos y pensar en la importancia de nuestro propio bautismo. ¿Te has dado cuenta de que eres hijo, hija de Dios? ¿Sabes lo que quiere decir seguir al Mesías? ¿Comprendes el compromiso de estar vinculados a la misión de Jesucristo? Hoy es el día preciso de comenzar de nuevo, centramos en la vida pública de Jesús en sus milagros y su deseo de que el Reino de Dios se cumpla entre nosotros. Hacer presente a Jesús en el mundo con sencillez y apertura de corazón. ¡Eso hace un verdadero discípulo de Jesucristo!

JUBILEO EXTRAORDINARIO DE LA MISERICORDIA

"Desde este momento, confiamos este Año Santo a la Madre de la Misericordia, que ella pueda volver su mirada fija sobre nosotros y cuidar nuestra travesía. Nuestro camino penitencial, nuestra forma de abrir corazones a lo largo de un año, para recibir la indulgencia de Dios, para recibir la misericordia de Dios." Estas fueron las palabras que el Papa pronuncio al concluir la celebracion pentencial en la cual él anuncio el nuevo Jubileo dedicado a la misericordia.

Celebra nuestra vocación común que nos viene del bautismo. Reza por aquellas personas que están discerniendo su llamada a vivir su compromiso bautismal como hermanos, hermanas religiosas, sacerdotes o diáconos.
Lucas 3:15-16, 21-22
