2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Jesus told them, ‘Fill the jars with water.’ So they filled them to the brim.” And then look what happened! The water became wine! And not only that, but it became “the good wine.” Jesus transformed plain water into the very best wine served at that wedding feast in Cana. And he can do the same with our lives.

Sometimes, we come to Jesus with empty jars. We feel we have nothing to offer, that our efforts have failed and our energy has run dry. It may seem impossible that anything good could come out of our situation. Even our hope has often disappeared in these moments. But today’s Gospel should restore our confidence; we don’t need to work the miracle. We just need to “do whatever he tells” us.

In many cases, this will mean doing something that doesn’t make sense on the surface. The servers were probably skeptical that filling their jugs with water would have any benefit. But they did it anyway. And they did it wholeheartedly, filling them up “to the brim.” In our moments of emptiness, we too need to do what Jesus asks of us, all the way, without reservation. We need to continue to pray (even when we don’t hear an answer). We need to continue to participate in the sacraments (even when they don’t seem to help). We need to continue to follow the commandments (even when they strike us as difficult or irrelevant). We need to continue to love our neighbors (even when they don’t love us back). All of this is like pouring water into those jars. We simply need to do what Jesus asks of us and then allow him to do the rest. Only when we are willing to follow his directions can he transform our emptiness into an overabundance of joy.

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

We should strive in working together to help reconcile not only ourselves with Christ, but others as well. This can only be done with the assistance of the Holy Spirit... and what better way, but through the Sacraments of the Church. During this Jubilee Year, let’s celebrate the Sacraments and show others the joy of living our faith as the visible “Sacrament of Christ”.

“CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSES FOR MASS” CARDS

We have enjoyed using the response Cards. We now have some that have LARGER PRINT for those of us that need a little assistance in seeing the words more clearly. These larger cards are placed in the holder next to the bulletins. Take one, use it at mass and return it so someone at the next mass will be able to use it. Thank you for sharing.

God’s Spirit is given to each person for the common good. What are your gifts? Are you willing to share them for the good of others?
1 Corinthians 12:4-11

2º DOMINGO EL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

“Esto Jesús hizo en Caná de Galilea fue la primera de sus señales milagrosas. Así mostró su gloria y sus discípulos creyeron en él” (Jn 2, 11). Así inició Jesús sus milagros de manera desapercibida, quien recibe los halagos y felicitaciones es el novio, no Jesús. Porque su hora aún no ha llegado. El agua a petición de su Madre se convierte en vino, este gran milagro es para toda la humanidad no tan solo para aquellos novios de su tiempo histórico. Ahora, cada domingo, nosotros celebramos y participamos con alegría de ese banquete eucarístico.

Otro punto que debemos de meditar en la lectura del Evangelio de hoy es darnos cuenta de que sus discípulos creyeron en él. ¿Cuántos milagros tiene que hacer Jesús en nuestra vida para que creamos en su palabra, en su promesa de vida eterna? ¿Dónde entra su Madre diciendo haz lo que él te diga? La sintonía entre Jesús y María lleva a los discípulos a ver, creer, comprender y lo más importante hacer caso de lo que estaban viviendo. Signos y señales van unidos entre sí para evitar que los milagros sean mágicos o espectaculares. Dios actúa en el silencio, en lo discreto, en lo sencillo. Su manifestación en este caso es para que los novios no queden en vergüenza. Su vino de salvación y felicidad no se comparan con el que se había terminado. Ahora es un vino nuevo. ¡Señor, ayúdanos ver la abundancia de tus dones y de tu amor para que las señales de vida nueva que nos das nos ayuden a crecer en la fe, la esperanza y el amor!

Estas lleno/a del Espíritu. ¿Cuál es tu don? ¿Cuál es tu ministerio? ¿Reza por sabiduría y conocimiento, fe y don de sanación. Reza para que sepas cómo quiere Dios que uses tus dones.
1 Corintios 12:4-11

JUBILEO EXTRAORDINARIO DE LA MISERICORDIA

“Desde este momento, confiamos este Año Santo a la Madre de la Misericordia, que ella pueda volver su mirada fija sobre nosotros y cuidar nuestra travesía. Nuestro camino penitencial, nuestra forma de abrir corazones a lo largo de un año, para recibir la indulgencia de Dios, para recibir la misericordia de Dios.” Estas fueron las palabras que el Papa pronuncio al concluir la celebracion pentencial en la cual él anuncio el nuevo Jubileo dedicado a la misericordia.

Como llegara a faltar el vino, María le dijo a Jesús: “Ya no tienen vino”. Jesús le contestó: “Mujer, ¿qué podemos hacer tú y yo? Todavía no llega mi hora”. Pero ella dijo a los que servían: “Hagan lo que él les diga”. - Jn 2, 3-5
