3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“So that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received.” St. Luke began his Gospel by explaining why he wrote it. His intention was to provide a written account “of the events that have been fulfilled among us.” But he didn’t write simply to make a historical record; he wrote in order to bolster the confidence of the Christian community. He wanted to offer them a resource for realizing that what they had been taught was legitimate. This is why he investigated “everything accurately anew” and wrote it down “in an orderly sequence.”

This passage helps us understand the relationship between sacred tradition and sacred Scripture. As Catholics, we believe that the Bible is an essential part of divine revelation that goes hand in hand with the teachings that were established by Jesus and passed on by his apostles. The “Catechism of the Catholic Church” tells us that the church “does not derive her certainty about all revealed truths from the holy Scriptures alone. Both Scripture and Tradition must be accepted and honored with equal sentiments of devotion and reverence” (#82). Here, Luke emphasizes that what he writes is a confirmation of what was already being taught.

This fact should help us appreciate the gift of the Bible. This inspired collection of books exists to help us practice our faith and to bring us into a deeper understanding of the revealed word of God. Although the Bible is not the only source of revelation, it does help us to have what Luke calls “certainty” regarding our faith. We do hear Bible readings at Mass, but we would do well to read the Bible on our own as well. Let us not miss the opportunity to hear God’s word speaking to us every day.

¿Crees tú que la palabra de Jesús se ha perdido en la actualidad? ¿Crees que ya no es necesario anunciar el bien y denunciar el mal? Todavía Jesús es el Mesías, el que libera de toda atadura, el que brinda la paz. Cada vez que asistimos a la Eucaristía dominical es como si estuviéramos en la sinagoga escuchando a Jesús mismo. Deberíamos salir de ahí con un compromiso auténtico y único de llevar la Buena Nueva y de ser la buena noticia para los que nos rodean. Las sugerencias son muchas, pero una es la que nos lleva a ser mejores en esto de ser heraldos de esperanza y es ser coherentes con nuestros hechos y palabras.

El Espíritu de Dios está sobre ti. Por el bautismo y confirmación Dios te envía “a llevar la Buena Nueva a los pobres y proclamar la libertad a los cautivos, anunciar el día favorable del Señor.” ¿Estas llamado/a al sacerdocio, diaconado o a la vida religiosa?
Lucas 1:1-4, 14-21

REDISCOVER WORKS OF MERCY
 Reflect on the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The corporal works of mercy call us to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, welcome the stranger, heal the sick, visit the imprisoned, and bury the dead. The spiritual works of mercy beckon us to counsel the doubtful, instruct the ignorant, admonish sinners, comfort the afflicted, forgive offenses, bear patiently those who do us ill, and pray for the living and the dead. As you reflect on the works of mercy, ask yourself: What role do the works of mercy play in your life? In what ways do they inspire you or beckon you to change?

3ER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Hace más de dos mil años que Jesús pronunció las siguientes palabras: “Hoy mismo se ha cumplido este pasaje de la Escritura que acaban de oír” (Lc 4, 20). Ojalá que este 2016, y en esta comunidad parroquial, también se cumpla en nosotros este pasaje del Evangelio y tal como Jesús lo hizo: llevemos a los pobres, a los necesitados de alguna palabra de aliento y de amor, la Buena Nueva. Éste es el tema central que hoy escuchamos, la palabra de Dios proclamada a todos nosotros. En la primera lectura Esdras reorganiza a la comunidad israelita después del destierro y públicamente anunció la ley de Dios. San Pablo explica cómo la palabra de Dios se hace realidad en Cristo y se manifiesta en los diferentes carismas que Dios ofrece a las personas. Jesús comienza su actividad pública comentando la sagrada Escritura en la sinagoga de su pueblo Nazaret.

“Desde este momento, confiamos este Año Santo a la Madre de la Misericordia, que ella pueda volver su mirada fija sobre nosotros y cuidar nuestra travesía.
