4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury.” Why were these folks furious? Because they didn’t like what Jesus told them. They took offense at his teaching that “no prophet is accepted in his own native place.” Jesus was implying that his fellow Nazarenes in the synagogue were blind to who he really was. And this made them mad. They didn’t like being told that they were wrong. But Jesus told them anyway. He knew that these people needed to hear the truth, even if it meant that he would be unpopular. In fact, he spoke the truth even at risk of his own life. “They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong.”

It can be tempting to confuse Jesus’ kindness and goodness with passivity, mistakenly imagining him as a person who would never ruffle any feathers because he was so concerned about being “nice.” This one-sided image of Jesus can lead us to excuse our own passivity about the falsehood and evil that surrounds us. We can justify our silence or inaction by convincing ourselves that we shouldn’t upset anyone. But the fact is that Jesus upset people on a regular basis. That wasn’t his goal, of course, but he was willing to deal with resistance for the sake of truth and justice. And we should be willing to do the same.

Our world is growing more and more hostile to the message of the Gospel. When we simply live our faith authentically, it makes some people angry. But we should not recoil from this reality. Jesus’ witness made people furious too. But when they got mad, he didn’t cave in. Whether people like it or not, the truth does not change.

4º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Las lecturas de este domingo nos ayudan a comprender que Dios es el que lo sabe todo de nosotros nos conoce hasta el fondo de nuestro corazón. También se nos recuerda nuestra vocación de profetas. Dios tiene un proyecto para cada uno de nosotros. Como en el caso de Jeremías en la primera lectura. Como Jesús mismo lo demostró en la sinagoga de su pueblo. Y como nos lo explica Pablo anunciando la importancia del amor en nuestra vocación de cristianos. En la actualidad la sociedad sufre de la enfermedad de crisis emocionales, de tensiones a causa de que la persona no se siente aceptada y cree que nació por casualidad olvidándose que alguien nos ha pensado desde la eternidad. Dios no se equivoca, estamos aquí para mejorar y cooperar por un mundo mejor.

“Desde antes de formarte en el seno materno, te conozco; desde antes de que nacieras, te consagré como profeta para las naciones” (Jer 1, 4). Lo demás es lo de menos hay que ser positivos y personas de esperanza en toda circunstancia. No podemos ignorar ni echar en saco roto la misión que Dios nos confía. En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús nos da ejemplo al reconocerse como profeta y vive y actúa como tal. ¿Eres consciente de la misión que Dios te ha encomendado? ¿Luchas con esfuerzo verdadero por seguir la vocación que Dios te ha encomendado? Padre o madre de familia, sacerdote, o religioso, hombres y mujeres estamos llamados a llevar la gracia del Señor. No seamos como los nazarenos que solo tenían curiosidad y su fe en Jesús andaba muy lejos de él.
