1ST SUNDAY OF LENT

“The devil said to him... ‘All this will be yours, if you worship me.’” Jesus faced temptation, like we all do. His forty-day fast in the desert wasn’t full of supernatural consolation and delight. He was subject to “every temptation” and when the forty days were over, “he was hungry.” In other words, he was human. Jesus’ divine nature didn’t cancel out his human nature. He faced struggles just like we do—both physical and spiritual—in his body and his soul.

As we see in today’s Gospel, the strategy Jesus used to fight these physical and spiritual battles was to immerse himself in God’s word. To silence the devil during this fast, Jesus quoted Scripture. He rooted himself in these eternal truths, relying upon them in his moments of trial. And these sacred words had a dramatic effect. Every time Satan tried to seduce him with a new promise, Jesus responded with a Bible verse. And each time, Satan was silenced and had to try a new angle. Finally, when all the devilish angles had been tried, “the devil departed from him for a time.” Jesus won the victory using the weapon of God’s word.

As we enter into the season of Lent, we can be armed in the same way. We now embark upon a battle against our own pride, sloth, and greed as we commit to prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Ultimately, we are working to put God first, instead of bowing down to our selfishness and our desire for comfort. The devil would like nothing more than to see us “worship” him in these ways. But, instead, let’s be equipped to proclaim—and to live—the words Jesus himself used: “You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve.”

1ER DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

Cuaresma es un tiempo que nos prepara para la transformación, los símbolos y los signos que viviremos en las liturgias ayudarán a ver el significado de esta conversión. Pero, en orden de prepararnos para la transformación y conversión debemos volver a Dios. Esto no será fácil, se debe estar consciente de ello, aquellos que lo intenten algunas veces misteriosamente serán atraídos por el mal. A esto se le llama tentación. Lo vivió el pueblo de Israel al atravesar el desierto, en su desvío y sufrimiento volvió a Dios para continuar su jornada hacia la libertad. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús es presentado por Lucas resistiendo a la tentación. Jesús responde a ella con respuestas de la sagrada Escritura. ¿Cómo respondes a las tentaciones? ¿Qué pasaje de la sagrada Escritura te ayuda a volver a Dios una y otra vez?

El hecho es que los pasajes citados por Jesús en la sagrada Escritura vienen del tiempo en que los Israelitas sufrían en el desierto y Dios escuchó sus lamentos. Jesús en su tiempo hizo lo mismo, predicando el Reino de Dios e invitando a volver a Dios por medio de la conversión. Dejar el pecado cuesta, cambiar actitudes y comportamientos es difícil, pero con Dios todo es posible. El sacramento de la reconciliación nos ayuda a volver a Dios una y otra vez. Ser cristiano significa seguimiento y para lograrlo debemos seguir a Jesús como puerta de entrada hacia la vigilia pascual. Con el Miércoles de Ceniza dio comienzo la Cuaresma y en este primer domingo Jesús nos indica el camino del cómo se rechaza la tentación. Cimentados, confiados y activos en la palabra de Dios no debemos de temer.

Oremos por todos aquellos que están enfermos, desvalidos y convalecientes.
Let us pray for all souls and those listed in our Book of Remembrance.
