2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

“Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory.” Today’s Gospel records the event we call the Transfiguration of the Lord. In this miraculous moment, Jesus’ divine nature was revealed clearly to Peter, James and John. Often, we think only in terms of what happened to Jesus: “his face changed” and “his clothing became dazzling white” and he began a supernatural conversation with two ancient prophets. But that was only half of the story. The other part is what happened to the men.

They were able to witness this revelation of Jesus only because they were “fully awake.” Had they stayed sleeping, they would have missed out. They would not have had this astonishing insight into the glory of their friend and Master. It’s an obvious point but one that may need more attention than we’d care to admit. Of course we have to be “awake” in order to absorb the fullness of our faith. If we are not tuned in, not attentive, not exerting any effort, then we are certainly going to miss out. But the fact is that we don’t always realize we are falling asleep.

Just as Peter, James, and John were “overcome” with sleep, we too can slip into this state without necessarily realizing it’s happening. Spiritually speaking, we can become numb or lazy and slowly fade away from the fervor of authentic faith. This is why the church, in her wisdom, gives us the season of Lent. During these weeks, we strive to purify ourselves by attacking the sins and selfishness that make us spiritual sleepwalkers. This is the time to refocus, to clear away the cobwebs and to become “fully awake.” Ultimately, we pray that these efforts will allow us to truly see “his glory” come Eastertide.

Encontramos con Dios en la oración

2º DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

Como cada Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma, el punto central de la celebración litúrgica es la Transfiguración del Señor, que prepara el camino, el paso, hacia la Pascua. Jesús invita a Pedro, Santiago y Juan y sube al monte a orar. Estando en oración Jesús se transfigura. Para hacer oración, debemos de recogernos, de retirarnos; es un momento que pide recogimiento e intimidad. Jesús prepara a sus discípulos para ello sin embargo ellos respondieron de acuerdo a sus posibilidades de entendimiento y comprensión de la gloria de Dios. Ellos reconocieron esa gloria de Dios en Jesús hasta después de su resurrección. La Iglesia nos invita en esta Cuaresma a practicar el ejercicio ascético de la oración, es lo que se recomendaba a todos los creyentes el pasado Miércoles de Ceniza. ¡Ayuno, oración y dar limosna!

¿Estoy preparado para mi encuentro con Dios por medio de la oración? ¿Puedo decir como Pedro que es bueno estar en la presencia de Dios? ¿Es bueno esto para mí? ¿Qué transformación es necesaria para mi crecimiento espiritual? Dios nos da la respuesta inmediatamente. “Este es mi Hijo, mi escogido; escúchenlo” (Lc 9, 35). El punto clave al que debemos estar atentos es la voz de Dios que sale desde la nube y que manifiesta la identidad y reconocimiento de Jesús como Hijo de Dios. Y el mandato de escucharlo. Para los discípulos nos dice el Evangelio que guardaron silencio por aquellos días y no contaron nada a nadie de lo que habían visto. Pero intuyen de alguna manera que aquello es bueno. ¿Qué cosas buenas encuentras en tu parroquia durante la Cuaresma que te ayudan a reconocer a Jesús como Hijo de Dios? ¿Dónde está la presencia de Dios?

Oremos por todos aquellos que están enfermos, desvalidos y convalecientes. Let us pray for all souls and those listed in our Book of Remembrance.
