2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER

“Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’” The disciples were paralyzed by fear. After the Crucifixion, they had locked themselves in a room and were keeping a low profile. They didn’t want to end up how Jesus had ended up. But the Lord stepped right into this paranoia and dispelled it in an instant: “The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.”

Although these first Christians were very concerned about preserving their lives, the fact is that living holed up in an attic wasn’t a life of much freedom or joy. Jesus wanted his followers to have the fullness of life, but this required trust in him and his promises. As today’s Gospel puts it, through the belief that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, “you may have life in his name.” When we come to really accept who Jesus is, there is no more need for a life of slavery to fear, whatever that fear may be, whether it’s fear for our health; fear for our reputation; fear for our comfort; or even fear that our sins are too big for forgiveness.

Today as we celebrate the feast of Divine Mercy, we remember that God’s love is strong enough to conquer the greatest of all human fears: death itself. This confidence leads us to a renewed joy. As Pope Francis wrote in his declaration of this, the Year of Mercy, “Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope.” Once we are firmly established in this hope, we are called to be witnesses of mercy to others. The Holy Father continues with a challenge for all of us, “Jesus asks us also to forgive and to give. To be instruments of mercy because it was we who first received mercy from God.”

2º DOMINGO DE PASCUA

“La Iglesia tiene la misión de anunciar la misericordia de Dios, corazón palpitante del Evangelio, que por su medio debe alcanzar la mente y el corazón de toda persona” (Misericordiae Vultus, número 12). Este Segundo Domingo de Pascua es llamado de la Misericordia Divina. En medio del gozo de la Pascua Dios se manifiesta por medio de su Hijo muerto y resucitado y el discípulo es invitado a dejarse modelar por Jesús. La liturgia de hoy pretende hacernos vivir y vibrar con los apóstoles la primera semana de la Resurrección.

Por lo tanto, cabe preguntarnos lo siguiente. ¿Cómo estamos celebrando la Pascua? ¿Dónde vemos la misericordia de Dios en nuestra vida? ¿Creemos porque hemos visto? O, dejaremos que el Señor nos diga: “¡Dichosos los que creen sin haber visto!” (Jn 20, 29). La paciencia de Dios se manifiesta en este pasaje del Evangelio. Cristo es el objetivo y la meta de cualquier experiencia de la Iglesia y su comunidad. Ahora, con el sople del Espíritu Santo, y la paz deseada los apóstoles ahí reunidos tendrán que responder con un espíritu nuevo y valentía renovada al compromiso de llevar a cabo la misión de anunciar el kerigma primitivo de la Iglesia. Pasión, muerte, resurrección y gloria de Cristo resucitado. ¡Qué hermosa noticia! Invita y anima al bautizado a caminar hacia su destino de gloria, aun en medio de sus penas y amarguras de su vida actual. Hagamos oración para que en esta Pascua lleguemos a descubrir cómo “Jesús de Nazaret con su palabra, con sus gestos y con toda su persona revela la misericordia de Dios” (Misericordiae Vultus, número 1).

Tomás creyó porque vió a Jesús. ¿Que necesitarás para que respondas a la llamada de Dios al sacerdocio o vida religiosa?
Juan 20:19-31
