4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“Jesus said, ‘My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me.’ How blessed we are to be the “sheep” of such a Good Shepherd! Jesus promises that “I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish.” When we follow the voice of our Shepherd, he leads us exactly where we want to go. But, of course, it’s up to us to make sure that we recognize this voice.

In today’s culture, many voices are competing for our attention. The voice of the media is a loud one, entering our homes and families through television, the Internet, print materials, and so on. We are also more and more a culture whose ears are literally filled with the voices of our favorite singers and the sounds of our personal playlists--the sight of people marching through their day with earphones blocking out other sounds is now a common sight. All of this has its appropriate place. We simply need to be sure that we don’t allow these voices to become the primary ones in our lives.

To hear the voice of Jesus, we need to encounter his word in the Bible where he speaks to us loud and clear. We need to fill our ears with the message of the Gospel, to listen attentively to the prayers and preaching at Mass, and to “tune in” to the teaching of the Church and of the Holy Father, which is easily available to anyone these days through those same media outlets mentioned above.

All of these things will help us to stay close to our Shepherd, and to avoid going astray into regions where we might get lost in spite of ourselves. Jesus promises of those who hear his voice and follow him that, “No one can take them out of my hand.” When we stay near the Lord, we can rest assured that he will fulfill his promises.

4º DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Este domingo debe ayudarnos a reflexionar sobre las miles de voces que escuchamos a diario. Voces comerciales que nos ofrecen productos para comprar aunque no necesitemos nada de lo que ofrecen. Voces de pastores falsos que nos enredan prometiéndonos salud, bienestar y riqueza. Voces de amistades que nos conducen por el mal camino. ¿Qué voces escuchas tú? ¿A cuales les haces caso? La liturgia de hoy es hermosa pues nos ayuda a escuchar la verdadera voz a la que debemos seguir sin titubear. El conocimiento que nos lleva a Jesús el Buen Pastor debe ser el del amor. Sus ovejas escuchan su voz y lo siguen. Los relatos de los Evangelios nos lo demuestran con cada milagro que el hacía y la respuesta que daba el que lo recibía.

“Mis ovejas escuchan mi voz; yo las conozco y ellas me siguen. Yo les doy la vida eterna” (Jn 10, 27-28). Éste es el regalo del Resucitado para cada oveja que lo siga al oír su voz. ¡La vida eterna! Buen recordatorio por si ya olvido que seguimos celebrando la Pascua. Aún es tiempo para que se tenga la experiencia de un encuentro vivo con el Señor. Todo lo que hacemos para hacer el bien debe de partir de haber escuchado, de haber tenido un encuentro personal e íntimo con Jesús resucitado. Y de creer en él en todo tiempo y en cada circunstancia de la vida. El reto es no ser ovejas a medias sino completas --toda la persona-- sin fragmentos. Se trata de escuchar, de hacer caso, de no poner en saco roto sus enseñanzas. ¿Por qué no le pedimos hoy su ayuda para dar el cambio?

En este domingo del Buen Pastor celebramos el Dia de Oracion Mundial por las Vocaciones. Reza por el aumento de vocaciones a la vida sacerdota, diaconado y vida religiosa, para que Dios nos de buenos pastores.
Juan 10:27-30
