15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"He replied to him, 'You have answered correctly; do this and you will live.'" In today's Gospel a scholar questions Jesus about how to gain eternal life. In case anyone ever wonders whether heaven is within reach, one only needs to refer to this Gospel. Jesus provides a clear answer that gives us a clear plan of action: We are to love God with all that we are, and also to love our neighbors. Really, it's that simple.

The scholar, however, complicated things to make himself look better. Instead of accepting the simplicity of Jesus' instruction, he wanted to split hairs, asking, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied with the story of the Good Samaritan and the lesson that our neighbors are not just those we know or love. Rather, our neighbor is the person that needs our help, the person whom we would rather ignore, the person whom God puts in our path. In short, everyone is our neighbor and we are called to treat everyone with mercy. This is part of how we gain eternal life.

But this flows from the first element of Jesus' answer. First and foremost, Jesus instructs us to love God "with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind." When we love God in this way, truly as the Lord of our life, then loving our neighbors becomes the easy part. When our hearts and minds are full of the love of God—who loves all people—then it will necessarily follow that we too will desire to share that love with others and not count the cost.

The Good Samaritan is an excellent example of this kind of love. Without hope of repayment, he gave of his time and his money to help the poor victim. But in return, the Samaritan will surely "gain eternal life."

15° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

"Maestro, ¿qué debo hacer para conseguir la vida eterna? Observemos que en el Evangelio de hoy hay un diálogo de preguntas y respuestas. Una parábola muy conocida en medio de este dialogo es contada por Jesús. La parábola del buen samaritano. Muchos oyentes como en el tiempo de Jesús pueden hacerse los sordos y quedarse siempre con el mismo comentario de siempre y exclamar. ¡Esos que se pasan de largo! ¡Qué malas personas son! Es fácil dejar a otros con la carga de los demás, quedando tan tranquilos porque otros hacen lo que a mí me toca hacer. ¡Eso no se vale! Tenemos que fijarnos hoy en la frase final del Evangelio. "Entonces Jesús le dijo: 'Anda y haz tu lo mismo'".

De la segunda pregunta básica es que Jesús cuenta la parábola. "¿Y quién es mi prójimo?" La parábola termina con una pregunta, para que el mismo que tiene duda responda. "¿Cuál de estos tres te parece que se portó como prójimo del hombre que fue asaltado por los ladrones?" La respuesta fue, "El que tuvo compasión de él". Si hiciéramos esta pregunta al Papa Francisco, de seguro él nos contestaría. ¡Misericordia, el que mostro misericordia! Porque, en verdad, éste ha sido su pedido, llamado e invitación a lo largo de esta Año Santo de Misericordia. Vayan al mundo, salgan de los escondites del egoísmo y muestren el amor de Jesús que es rico en compasión y amor. ¡No pasemos de largo en las necesidades de los demás! En otras palabras, dejar el pecado de omisión para entrar en la acción del Evangelio.

Es un concepto sencillo; ama a Dios con todo tu ser y pon ese amor en practica. ¿Como te llama Dios a amar? ¿Has considerado el modo de amar del sacerdocio o vida religious?
Lucas 10:25-37

STATUE OF THE VIRGIN MARY REPORTED TO BE WEeping

A statement from The Most Rev. Armando X. Ochoa, D.D. Bishop, Diocese of Fresno

Last year, after referring to Medjugorje, our Holy Father, Pope Francis, cautioned against "basing one's faith on apparitions or anything other than Christ."

In regards to the development of a popular devotion focused on a statue of the Virgin Mary in a private residence in Fresno, there has been misinformation circulating that I have officially stated that this is a miraculous event. This is not correct. I have only reached out to a member of the household by letter encouraging the family to meet with one of our priests for pastoral guidance. To date, the family has not responded. The letter sent to the family may be viewed on our diocesan website at: www.dioceseoffresno.org.

As Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Fresno, I do not endorse, encourage or authorize visitation to such a venue or authorize donations to be received for whatever purpose.

LA ESTATUA DE LA VIRGEN MARÍA ESTÁ LLORANDO

Una Declaración del Reverendísimo Armando X. Ochoa, D.D. Obispo de la Diócesis de Fresno

El año pasado, después de referirse a Medjugorje, nuestro Santo Padre, el Papa Francisco, advirtió contra el peligro de "fundar nuestra fe en apariciones o cualquier otra cosa que no sea Cristo." En lo que respecta al desarrollo de la devoción popular enfocada en la estatua de la Virgen Maria en una residencia privada en Fresno, una información incorrecta está siendo divulgada indicando que yo, oficialmente, he declarado que este es un evento milagroso. Esto no es correcto. Yo solamente me he comunicado con un miembro de la familia a través de una carta, alentando a la familia a reunirse con uno de nuestros sacerdotes para buscar una guía pastoral. Hasta la fecha, la familia no ha respondido. La carta que se envió a esta familia puede encontrada en nuestra página del internet: www.dioceseoffresno.org

Como Obispo de la Diócesis Católica de Fresno, yo no respaldo, fomento o autorizo las visitas a este lugar, tampoco autorizo dar donaciones por cualquier propósito.
