17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

His care is what will make us flourish. "Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." This is a promise that anyone would love to hear. With these words Jesus comforts and reassures us. He suggests that we will be satisfied and welcomed and fulfilled. His message in today's Gospel assures us that our heavenly Father loves us even more than earthly parents love their children. So we can enjoy the security of knowing that God will take good care of us.

But God's care may not always look exactly the way we expect it to. His care for us is based on knowing what is best for us and what will make us flourish. And, sometimes, what we think we need isn't really best. It's important to keep this context in mind. This prevents us from understanding Jesus' words today in a selfish way. As the end of the passage makes clear, this asking and seeking that Jesus refers to is ultimately fulfilled in the gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus is promising us that if we ask God for his Spirit, he will certainly give it to us, his children.

For most of us, we actually received this gift at our baptism. But have we taken full advantage of this? Although we may not realize it at first, in receiving the Holy Spirit we actually receive a whole host of gifts. With God's Spirit come the sevenfold gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel, knowledge, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord. And the fruits of the Spirit as St. Paul lists them in Galatians 5 include love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. God knows that all of these gifts and fruits make us very well equipped for life on earth, and for eternal life in heaven! What more do we really need to ask for?

Pidamos hoy a Jesús que nos enseñe a Orar

17° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

El domingo pasado se nos exhortaba acerca de la importancia de la hospitalidad, hoy se nos catequiza sobre la oración y la forma de orar al Padre. Mejor dicho se nos dice cómo rezar, cómo aprender a hacerlo. La oración cristiana, es algo que debemos aprender, por eso la importancia de dejarnos dirigir por un guía espiritual y por la comunidad que ora. Se aprende con proceso, con perseverancia y sobre todo con una rutina seria. La primera lectura nos pone de ejemplo a Abraham que insiste y persiste en la oración para interceder por Sodoma. Oración, temerosa y confiada, realizada por el diálogo entre Dios y Abraham. Oración, insistente, sin perder la esperanza en obtener lo que se pide. "No se enoje mi Señor, hablaré sólo una vez más, ¿y si se encuentran solo diez?" Contestó el Señor: "Por esos diez, no destruiré la ciudad".

En el Evangelio Jesús nos relata algo similar con la parábola del amigo que llama con insistencia pidiendo ayuda. "Pidan y se les dará, busquen y encontrarán, toquen y se les abrirá. Porque quien pide, recibe; quien busca, encuentra, y al que toca, se le abre". ¿Con qué confianza me acerco al Señor? ¿Le pido con insistencia o me desanimo a las primeras de cambio? Debemos pedir sin desfallecer por nuestras necesidades y las del mundo entero. Pidamos hoy a Jesús que nos enseñe a orar. Que él sea nuestro ejemplo y modelo a seguir. Padre Nuestro que estás en los cielos...

Pidan y se les dará, busquen y hallarán, toquen a la puerta y les abrirán. Intentalo. En seguida escucha, mira, entra.
