4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

"Neither he nor his parents sinned; it is so that the works of God might be made visible through him."

The prevailing theology of Jesus' time led people to believe that any kind of disability was a punishment from God. So Jesus' disciples assumed that the man born blind suffered that affliction because of someone's sin: either his parents' or his own. But Jesus sets the record straight. Not only did he reject the idea that the blindness was a punishment for sin; he also went so far as to suggest that this very trial was an opportunity for God's glory to be revealed.

And sure enough, it was. Jesus worked a miracle of healing for the man who followed his directions and "came back able to see." So it was that the "works of God" became "visible" through a man who was blind! But, ironically, not everyone had the eyes to see the miracle. The Gospel tells us that "there was a division among them" as they debated whether this remarkable healing was really an act of God.

Jesus stated that he came "so that those who do not see might see." And so, who are we? Are we blinded by our own expectations of how God is supposed to work? Are we so caught up in our own vision of what we wish would happen that we fail to appreciate what is actually unfolding before our very eyes? It is so easy to perceive trials, disabilities, sickness, and misfortune as a curse or the result of being abandoned by God. But today's Gospel suggests another reality. In the midst of these very difficulties, God wants to reveal himself, to show his love and mercy. It may not always be in the exact way we expect, but without a doubt, even in these challenging realms, God is always at work.

HOLY SEASON OF LENT

Lent is an opportunity to cement a new family tradition of praying or reading something spiritual together. Pick one night a week during Lent to pray the Rosary as a family. If you have younger children, read them a story from the Bible. Teach your children about prayer.

4^o DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

"Despierta, tú que duermes; levántate de entre los muertos y Cristo será tu luz" (Ef 5, 14).

Buena llamada de atención nos hace Pablo en su Carta a los Efesios, para aquellos que todavía durante la Cuaresma han permanecido dormidos. Aún es tiempo, nos dice la lectura, para descubrir la luz que se avecina. Falta muy poco para llegar al Calvario y en este trozo del camino la luz de Dios es clave para ver quiénes y qué nos empuja fuera de la meta. Quizás estas preguntas sean útiles para la reflexión de este domingo ¿Qué se ha transformado en mi modo de ser en esta Cuaresma? ¿He sabido vencer las tentaciones de mi diario vivir?

El Evangelio de hoy es clave para entender aún más el misterio pascual. Porque como el ciego de nacimiento en nuestro bautismo fuimos lavados y llamados a ser nuevos. Transformados de hijos e hijas de la oscuridad en hijos e hijas de la luz. Por lo tanto, debemos de actuar de ese modo dando luz a los que nos rodean. Si nuestra fe ha aumentado aunque sea un poco en esta Cuaresma nuestro interior será inquebrantable, incondicional y fiel. Nuestro ejemplo: Jesús que vivió haciendo el bien, murió en la cruz por nosotros y resucitó para llevarnos a la eternidad. Este es el compromiso al que se nos invita hoy. Ser hombres y mujeres de luz, de esas personas que no se cansan de hacer el bien contra viento y marea. ¡Limpia mis ojos, Señor, para que te vea como el ciego y pueda exclamar de rodillas, "Creo, Señor"!
