5th SUNDAY OF EASTER

Put our FAITH into action

"Whoever believes in me will do the works that I do." What were the works that Jesus did? Miracles, sometimes, but what were the essence of these miracles? Caring for the sick, comforting the sorrowful, feeding the hungry ... much of Jesus' ministry was spent in carrying out what we call the works of mercy. But he did more than that; he also preached and publicly shared the good news, he fostered fellowship and community, and he prayed. All of this makes a kind of plan of action for us as Christians. As Jesus says today, if we truly believe in him, we will follow in his footsteps and do these same things.

What this all suggests is that belief itself—having faith, being Christian—is only part of the picture. Jesus expects us to take this faith and put it into concrete, practical action. Apparently this goes hand in hand with real faith. If actions don't follow, then faith is not being lived to its fullest.

This of course presents a real challenge. Our lives are busy and our plates are full, just with the tasks and demands of daily existence. It can seem like a burden to serve others, to share the Gospel, to be actively involved in a faith community, to find time to pray. But these are meant to be priorities for true disciples of Christ. And as many will testify, when we sincerely ask God to help us get our priorities in order, he has a way of miraculously multiplying our time. Somehow, we find the opportunities right before us to follow God's will and bring our faith to life. That simple prayer of asking for help may be where we need to start. The first step is not so much to fill our calendar as to fill our hearts, or just to pray that God will fill our hearts, with the desire to "do the works" of Jesus.

5º DOMINGO DE PASCUA

La belleza de la Pascua estriba en la hermosura de las variadas imágenes que Jesús muestra al dialogar con sus discípulos ya resucitado. El domingo pasado nos decía el Evangelio el cómo es importante entrar por la puerta que es Cristo. Ahora, el mismo Jesús nos muestra claramente quien es él: "Yo soy el camino, la verdad y la vida. Nadie va al Padre si no es por mí" (Jn 14, 6). Conocemos a Dios en la medida de nuestro encuentro personal con su Hijo Jesús. Nuestra conversión viene de acuerdo a este encuentro. La revelación de quien es Dios dio comienzo en la Encarnación de Jesús y esta Encarnación continua por medio de nosotros al practicar la justicia, el amor, la compasión y la reconciliación entre los que nos rodean.

¿Comprendemos esto? El ministerio que Jesús, dio comienzo hace más de 2000 años, nunca ha dejado de llevarse a cabo; lo que quiere decir que ser personas pascuales significa que estemos abiertos al Espíritu Santo para caminar en familia, comunidad y sociedad en general haciendo el cambio para el bien de todos. Sí, la Pascua nos invita cambiar la forma de vivir, de pensar y de actuar. El camino no siempre es fácil, siempre se atraviesa la ansiedad, los problemas personales y familiares. Todos los obstáculos que tengamos que vencer serán fáciles si nuestra esperanza en el Resucitado sigue en pie. Sugiero las siguientes palabras para oración durante la semana. "No pierdan la paz... Voy a prepararles un lugar... Yo soy el camino, la verdad y la vida". ¡Que así sea!

OUR LADY OF FATIMA

May 13th marks the 100th anniversary of the beginning of Mary's apparitions to the three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal. During the culmination of six visits, Mary asked them to make a sacrifice for the sins of the world and the conversion of sinners, urging them to warn the world, but convey hope that prayer and sacrifice can achieve world peace. Mary requested the daily recitation of the Rosary, observe the Five First Saturdays devotion, and prayer for the conversion of Russia. We are called to live the message of Fatima.
