7th SUNDAY OF EASTER

"Now this is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ."
 The Easter season is resplendent with the joy of eternal life. Jesus conquered death through his resurrection and promises all believers a share in this miraculous triumph. The gates of heaven have been opened for us by the great sacrifice of our Savior. All good things lie in wait for us who know "the only true God" and his Son, Jesus Christ.

When we gather together in our communities of faith, it's easy to remember all of this. We share common beliefs and practices with those friends, family members, and neighbors who attend our church. But carrying the joy of Easter with us out into the "world" can be more of a challenge. Once we step outside the safe confines of our parish or home, we encounter those who do not know the true God. We work with, study with, encounter, or gather with many people who have forgotten, abandoned, or never even known Jesus. Sometimes this can make us hesitant to share our joy, or even apologetic for our beliefs. But of course we are called to be witnesses of what we believe, not cowards who hide it from public view.

So let us take courage from today's Gospel. Jesus himself offered prayers on behalf of his followers. "I pray for them. I do not pray for the world, but for the ones you have given me." As the followers of Christ, we have the benefit of his own desire to help us, to strengthen us even amidst the challenges that we face. He knows that we "are in the world" even though he is not here in the same way. And he has asked God the Father to share his divine blessings with us even as we make our way in this world.

7º DOMINGO DE PASCUA

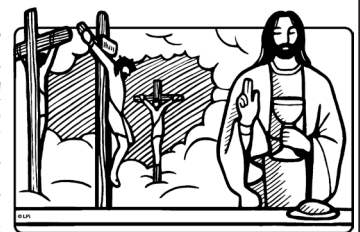

Los apóstoles regresaron a Jerusalén después de la Ascensión del Señor y se mantuvieron unidos en la oración esperando la llegada del Espíritu Santo. Quizás este tiempo que nos regala la liturgia de este domingo sea oportuno para que nos llevemos a casa la práctica de mantenernos unidos en familia orando siempre los unos por los otros para vivir así en la luz que es Cristo. El Papa Francisco en una de sus homilias en Santa Marta en el 2014, nos dice que rezar con devoción meditando los Misterios de Cristo, celebrar los sacramentos e imitar a Jesús en sus enseñanzas son las tres puertas para entrar a Jesús (Tres puertas, 16 de mayo de 2014). ¿Cuál de estas prácticas iniciaré en familia e individualmente? La Iglesia nos invita a mantenernos en oración durante estos días hasta la llegada de Pentecostés.

Jesús en su tiempo histórico oró por nosotros; meditemos en forma de oración sus palabras: "Te pido por ellos; no te pido por el mundo, sino por éstos, que tú me diste, porque son tuyos. Todo lo mío es tuyo y todo lo tuyo es mío. Yo he sido glorificado en ellos" (Jn 17, 9-10). Gracias, Señor, por recordarnos en nuestra ocupada vida que te pertenecemos y que tarde o temprano iremos a ti porque somos tuyos. Somos los hijos pródigos que seguimos buscando tu abrazo misericordioso en las alegrías y penas de nuestra vida. No perdamos, pues, el punto de vista de la oración de Jesús —la unión entre él y el Padre— donde Jesús expresa ese mismo deseo de compartir la gloria de la vida eterna con todos nosotros. ¡Que así sea!

Jesús levantó los ojos al cielo y dijo: "Padre, ha llegado la hora. Glorifica a tu Hijo, para que tu Hijo también te glorifique, y por el poder que le diste sobre toda la humanidad dé la vida a cuantos le has confiado. La vida eterna consiste en que te conozcan a ti, único Dios verdadero, y a Jesucristo, a quien tú has enviado". - Jn 17, 1-3
