10th Sunday in Ordinary Time + 10° Domingo del tiempo ordinario

10TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Have you ever felt judged by your family? St. John Paul II noted that the family "is the cradle of life and love" (On the Lay Members of Christ's Faithful, 40). Yet unmet expectations and divergent priorities can cause tension in even the most loving family situations. This is true for us, and it was true for Jesus!

In today's Gospel, Jesus has returned home to Nazareth. A large crowd gathered, and Jesus finds himself facing stiff opposition from his family. This was likely Jesus' large, extended family. The Semitic language has no specific words for extended relatives, so everyone is "brother" or "sister." The entire clan has gotten wind of Jesus' preaching, and they are not amused. "They set out to seize him, for they said, 'He is out of his mind.'" To make matters worse, the religious authorities even accuse Jesus of being possessed by a demon. It's a mess by any standards.

The family's perspective is perhaps understandable. In Jewish culture, teachers and scribes underwent intensive schooling and apprenticeships, none of which Jesus had done. The family knew Jesus the carpenter, not Jesus the rabbi. For them, Jesus' bold preaching threatened the reputation of their family!

Jesus' words to his family can seem controversial. "Who are my mother and my brothers?" Yet Jesus knows what he is about. He has always known he would be about the business of his Heavenly Father. And what is that business? It is the business of the new covenant and the Kingdom of God. In this Kingdom, we are all adopted sons and daughters of the King. Jesus begins, even now, to expand the perspective of his listeners. Being welcomed into this family does not depend on our families of birth or ethnic origin, but a wholehearted commitment to "do the will of God."

PRIEST RETIREMENT COLLECTION

Next Sunday we will take up our 2nd collection in support of the Priests' Retirement Fund. As we honor our fathers we also remember those men who have been spiritual fathers to us and help to support them in their retirement years. We are blessed to have Fr. Jerry still serving our community in his retirement. Thank you for your generosity.

10° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

En los tiempos de Jesús, y en el nuestro, existe la tendencia a la oposición de la misericordia de Dios por medio de su Hijo, a causa de la existencia del pecado. Nuestra actitud debe tener un carácter de lucha urgente contra el mal que nos abruma y, aunque parece que estamos rodeados de maldad, la confianza y la esperanza en Cristo que ha vencido el mal debe ser más fuerte para el que tiene fe. En las lecturas vemos cómo algunas personas critican a Jesús. Sus parientes lo llamaban loco, los maestros de la ley decían que estaba poseído por Belcebú. La paciencia de Jesús ante estos comentarios es admirable. Pide a sus seguidores que se acerquen y comienza a cuestionarlos con la siguiente pregunta: "¿Cómo puede Satanás echar a Satanás? Si una nación está dividida en bandos, no puede durar. Tampoco una familia dividida puede mantenerse (Mc. 3:24-26).

¿Qué mensaje nos quiere dar Dios en las lecturas de este domingo? ¿Cómo confrontamos el mal que nos rodea? Seguramente, no se trata solo de escuchar y salir de la Eucaristía diciendo: "qué bonito habló el padre". Se trata de comprender y actuar conforme al mensaje. Sabemos que la sociedad muchas veces es ciega para distinguir el bien del mal. Ya no existe la conciencia del pecado; todo lo vemos normal. Especialmente, quitar la vida al ser humano, como lo vemos en las noticias de todos los días. Jesús ofrece librarnos del mal, y debemos aprovechar sus enseñanzas para vivir de acuerdo con la verdadera familia de Jesús, es decir, los que acogen su palabra y la ponen en práctica.
