20TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

Even one hundred and fifty years after it took place, the effects of the Civil War in the United States can still be felt. Even though the shifting population has tempered perceptions, those who work in the social sciences can still point to sections of the country where certain attitudes hold a greater sway than in others. And even though it may be unfair, there are times when a particular region will be categorized in a way that harkens back to an earlier era. The battles of the war are still fought by teams who meticulously reenact the events in a harmless historical hobby. More nefarious are those who use code words and false ideas to resurrect an era that should be consigned to history.

The divisions that Jesus attests to in this weekend's Gospel spring from the real experience of the early Christian community in the first century of its existence. For some, Christianity was a dangerous philosophy that needed to be eradicated. Some of its propositions threatened the security of the state, like the worship of the one God and the equality of everyone before the Lord referenced in Paul's famous words to the Galatians: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free person, there is not male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus" (3:28).

The Gospel today is not an encouragement to family arguments. Jesus is not asking households to be so rigorous that our faith becomes a point of contention. But the Scripture does allude to a stress point that many of us may confront in our lives. Being a believer means that sometimes we must take a stand. We are called to proclaim clearly what we believe and to do that when it may be uncomfortable for us. We won't necessarily become a martyr, but there are times when there is a cost to our faith.

20° DOMINGO
DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Es urgente que los bautizados tomemos posturas de compromiso y hagamos de este mundo algo digno de vivir en paz. El fuego del que habla el Señor es el fuego que purifica y transforma, arranca las divisiones y enciende en la tierra el fuego del amor. Hoy se nos reta a dejar la fe incolora e insípida. Busquemos la fe que transforma a la persona desde el fondo de su ser, no la que la mantiene adormecida y frustrada. Es tiempo de evaluar nuestros actos y de ser diferentes. El Evangelio nos ayuda a enfocar nuestra visión y nuestro corazón hacia el Reino de Dios.

Me imagino que los oyentes del tiempo de Jesús se quedaron sin hablar así como nosotros ahora. Jesús, el Príncipe de la Paz, hablando de fuego, divisiones, contrariedades y enfrentamientos. San Lucas nos trata de explicar y nos presenta a un Jesús profético cuyo ministerio demanda una respuesta personal y radical, no cristianos a medias. Es muy clara la experiencia de división familiar cuando el o la joven se decide a seguir a Jesús en el sacerdocio o la vida religiosa. Los padres alegan tener mejores planes para sus hijos o hijas. ¿Jesús es signo de contradicción! Así lo profetizó el anciano Simeón. Seguirlo y serle fiel siempre traerá contrariedades para los que viven posturas cómodas. La vida cristiana exige luchas. El salmo 27:14 nos motiva a vencer las divisiones. "Ármate de valor y fortaleza y en el Señor confía". ¿Qué haremos para ser portadores de paz ante las divisiones que nos rodean?

Muchas veces al seguir a Jesüs somos rechazados por otras personas. Da palabras de aliento a quienes que cono- ces que está tratando de seguir a Jesús en medio del fuego. Reza por aquellas personas que están discerniendo su llamada al sacerdocio o vida religiosa. (Lucas 12:49)

JUST FOR LAUGHS

The Chuch Directory

Amen: The only part of the prayer that everyone knows..
Bulletin: Information read only during the sermon; proof that you attended church.
Choir: A group of people whose singing allows the rest of the congregation to lip-sync.
Hymn: A song of praise, usually sung in a key three octaves higher than the congregation can sing.
Incense: Holy smoke!
Justice: When kids have kids of their own.
Pew: A medieval torture device still found in some old line churches.
Procession: The ceremonial formation at the beginning of many church services, consisting of choir, acolytes, clergy and late worshippers looking for seats.
Recessional: Same as above going the other direction and led by worshippers trying to beat the crowd to the parking lot.
Ten Commandments: The most important Top Ten list not given by David Letterman.
Ushers: The only people in the congregation who don't know the seating capacity of a pew.

ADULT SACRAMENT PREPARATION

This year Fr. Dan will be working with St. John's Cathedral to provide a program of preparation for adults (18+) who would like to receive the Sacraments of Initiation. St. John's will be providing an RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) process for any adult who has never been baptized. There will also be a Confirmation Program for those adults who have been baptized but not received the Sacraments of Confirmation and/or Eucharist. The program will begin AUGUST 21st at 7:00 pm. For more information or to register before August 21st, contact Monica Dinis at 917-5149 or Fr. Dan at 485-3870.

Following Jesus sometimes means being rejected by others. Speak an encouraging word this week to someone you know who is trying to follow Jesus through the fire. Say a prayer for those who are discerning a call to the priesthood or religious life. (Luke 12:49-53)
